Nominee to Visit With Dawes

Secretary Will Speak in San Francisco at Reception

Stop at Coolidge's Retreat Expected to Wind Up Stay in Cabinet

WASHINGTON, July 11. (Exclusive)—A complete itinerary for Herbert Hoover's trip to his home in California was announced today. The Republican Presidential nominee will leave Washington at 7:05 Saturday evening on a schedule which will land him at Oakland at 11:30 a.m. Friday, the 30th inst. From Oakland he will ferry across to San Francisco for the welcome home celebration on the City Hall steps. At this time he will make his first public speech since his nomination, but it will be nonpolitical. He will not discuss political issues until his formal notification at Leland Stanford stadium on August 11.

VISIT TO DAWES
Mr. Hoover and his party of aides, newspaper correspondents and news photographers will reach Chicago at 5 p.m. next Sunday and the nominees will go direct from the station to the Stanton home of Vice-President and Mrs. Charles C. Dawes, where they will spend several hours.

While in Chicago the nominees will be joined by James W. Good, general manager of the campaign, and Representative Walter H. Newton, in charge of the national Republican speakers' bureau, but it was stated today there will be no political conference between them as Mr. Hoover is adhering strictly to his Quaker policy of refusing to

DEMOCRAT WILL GREET HOOVER

Booster for Senator Walsh to Escort Nominee to Palo Alto

PALO ALTO, July 11. (Exclusive)—When Herbert Hoover arrives in San Francisco on the 20th inst. on his way to his home here, a Democrat will welcome him and escort him down the peninsula to Palo Alto, where a committee, including members of both parties, will be assembled to do him honor. Capt. Edward L. Beach, former commander of the Mare Island Navy Yard, has been designated as the man to meet Hoover in San Francisco. Before the primaries Beach campaigned in Santa Clara county for Senator Walsh. Local committees are at work arranging for the decoration of their city with banners and bunting in honor of the nominee's homecoming.

talk politics on Sunday. Good and Newton will travel on to the summer White House at Brule, Wyo., where the party leaving Chicago at 6:30 Sunday evening over the Chicago and Northwestern and arriving at Oakland in the morning lodge some time Monday forenoon.

FURTHER SCHEDULE
Hoover will remain with President Coolidge Monday and Tuesday night and leave some time Tuesday for Omaha, where he will arrive Wednesday about 8 a.m. The plans call for a three-hour layover at Omaha to give Mr. Hoover an opportunity to send telegrams and dispatches with the departure from that city scheduled for 11 a.m. over the Union Pacific on a second section of the California Mail. The arrival at Oakland is set for 11:30 a.m. on Friday, the 30th inst.

At the California-Nevada line the official California welcoming committee will greet the nominee and hook their special car to the Hoover train accompanying the candidate on to Oakland and San Francisco.

To afford convenience and maximum comfort the same railroad equipment will be used all the way across the continent. Officials of several railroads are co-operating to make the trip a success and insure safety.

HATCHET BURIAL

The visit to the Dawes home is held to be of great significance. Many observers believe it forecasts burying of the Hoover-Dawes feud, which has existed for the past several years and indicates that the Vice-President will actively get busy for the Hoover-Curtis ticket. Dawes' aid would prove of immense benefit in the farm belt where he is popular because of the assistance he gave farm-relief forces in Congress. With Senator McNary of Oregon, co-author of the McNary-Haugen bill, already enthusiastically in line for the Republican ticket, the addition of Dawes to the fold would be hailed by western party leaders.

It is now assumed here from Brule dispatches that President Coolidge will accept Mr. Hoover's resignation from the Cabinet shortly if not immediately following the latter's visit to the summer White House. Hoover is believed to desire relief from his Cabinet duties as soon as possible so that he may be free to give the campaign his entire time and energy and after a period of confusion it now appears that President Coolidge also feels the proper thing is for him to step out of the Commerce Department Secretaryship.

EASTERN OUTLOOK

Mr. Hoover is receiving additional encouraging news from the eastern battleground. Representative Bacharach called upon the nominee today to say that in his opinion, after a careful check of conditions in New Jersey, the Hoover-Curtis ticket will carry that State by a large plurality, and that this will result in a clean sweep for the entire Republican State ticket. President Coolidge carried New Jersey in 1924 by 377,418 over Davis, and 268,000 over the combined vote for Davis and La Follette.

"Plenty of work at good wages" will put the Republican ticket across in his State, Bacharach said.

as President to promulgate such plan, and to advocate such changes in our laws and Constitution as may be necessary for its adoption.

FAIRM ISSUE

The chairman also said that the Democratic nominees condemned the "idea that those who advocate constitutional amendments by lawful methods to meet changing conditions are reactionaries." On the contrary, he said that the Governor believes that those charged with administration of the government who fail to enforce, for instance, the Eighteenth Amendment, because it is unpopular, or because it will make political enemies, are the real reactionaries.

Raskob reviewed Smith's efforts in behalf of agriculture in New York State, saying that the Governor in 1918 had recommended an appropriation of $2,150,000 for agricultural schools and experimental stations. Smith's results in his suggestion over $200,000 was appropriated for the suppression of bovine tuberculosis.

"The volume of agriculture in our country is tremendous," he continued, "and demands the best thought possible to secure solution along economic lines. The results in increase in prosperity to all. Alfred E. Smith is experienced in this important problem."

Contrary to expectations neither Gov. Smith nor his running mate, Senator Robinson, attended the brief committee session. Later both joined the committee members at a luncheon across the hall at the National Democratic Club.

The Governor plans to map out with Raskob and other leaders a campaign plan. Raskob was authorized by the committee to consult both Smith and Robinson regarding dates for the official notification and to fix them.

STORY OF LIFE

Raskob rose to be one of the leading financial figures of the country from a start as a $5-a-week bookkeeper in a country town.

He was born forty-nine years ago in Lockport, N. Y. His mother is of Irish descent and his father's family came originally from Alsace. The father died while Raskob still was young.

He heard that Pierre S. Du Pont, who was running the street railways of Lorraine, O., was in need of a secretary. He applied for the job, and was given a salary of $1000 a year. Du Pont sent for the country bookkeeper at the terms asked. Raskob's rise from there is well known.

VICE-CHAIRMAN

In perfecting his new organization, the national committee decided to have five vice-chairmen and the following were appointed by Mr. Raskob to the posts: Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former Governor of Wyoming; Mrs. Florence Farley of Kansas; Frank Hagans of New Jersey; Gov. Byrd of Virginia and Scott Ferris of Oklahoma.

Before retiring as director of finance Mr. Jones presented a report showing that contributions and pledges to the national committee since January 1925, had totaled $464,000, exclusive of the $200,000 convention fund contributed by citizens of Houston and $44,000 raised from convention programs, concessions and the like.

The intake, he reported, was enough to pay off the 1924 deficit and leave approximately $300,000 on hand to start on this year's operations.

Despite reports that there had been friction between Jones and James W. Gerard of New York, the committee treasurer, there was no open sign of disagreement. The former Ambassador to Germany was re-elected treasurer by acclamation.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The proposal for appointment of an advisory committee came from John S. Cohen, Georgia committee man. It authorized Raskob to name a committee of any size he deemed wise and to go outside the membership of the national committee if he desired in making appointments. In making Senator Gerry the chairman, Mr. Raskob announced that he would select the other members later.

SMITH ASSERTS HIMSELF

Appointment of Raskob Patently Bid for Aid of Big Business But South Dubious

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT

NEW YORK, July 11. (Exclusive)—Al Smith boldly threw another political bombshell today and by his boldness proved that he, and he alone, is dictator of the northern machinery of the Democratic party. He made John J. Raskob of Claymont, Del., a militant Catholic, a militant wet and the personification of big business, chairman of the Democratic committee. This is the candidate's second bombshell since his nomination. The first was his declaration to the Houston convention for modification of the Volstead Act.

The morning after that declaration he said to a friend in Albany: "Well, I told 'em, didn't I?" "You certainly did," the friend replied. "And," exclaimed Al, "I'll tell 'em again."

SOUTHERNERS DUBIOUS

But not some of the southern committeemen who thronged the rooms of the National Democratic Club, where the national committee met and did what the Democratic candidate for President of the United States told them to do. The Governor's choice for chairman of the national committee threw some of the southern delegates into deep meditation if not acute apprehension. Gov. Byrd of Virginia, who, like his brother, the "giving of the American Chamberlain" man, mediated audibly on the fact that a change of thirteen votes per precinct would move Dr. Virginia into the Republican column next November.

Alabama, also politically dry, also is worried by the choice of the Catholic devotee and the militant wet, who is a private chamberlain of the Pope's lay household, a Knight of St. Gregory and a charter member of the American Chamber of Commerce. The committee recommended to his party and his campaign.

And John J. Raskob is that spirit. Fifteen years ago he introduced Pierre Du Pont to John Smith in buying 2000 shares of General Motors stock. The deal was blessed from year to year and last spring when General Motors ran away with the stock market Raskob, son of the poor cigar maker of Lockport, N. Y., and now master of the magnificent Claymont in Delaware, became one of the industrial giants of the United States at 40 years of age.

ANOTHER MANEUVER

He also knows—and has said so—that the spirit of General Motors will lead him to the White House with respectability to his party and his campaign.

North Carolina worried out loud about the fact that the Tar Heel State's Democratic majority today is only 90,000 and that in the late '20's, the State went hell-bent to Populism and Republicanism with new men of the country, as chairman of the Democratic National Committee to manage the campaign. Raskob's choice of the Catholic devotee and the militant wet, who is a private chamberlain of the Pope's lay household, a Knight of St. Gregory and a charter member of the American Chamber of Commerce, is that it means the Smith forces will put on a tremendous drive to get for the Democratic national ticket the so-called Wall-street support which they realize Smith would have little chance of carrying New York, a State he must capture if he is to have even an outside chance of being elected.

EVASIONS FLOUTED

Raskob is a Catholic and wet and his appointment, made at the direct instance of Gov. Smith, is further proof that in the Smith camp there will be no evasion of the religious and prohibition issues, which, of course, the Democrats could not sidestep if they wanted to do so. Before becoming a close companion and supporter of Smith, Raskob was a Republican. Incidentally, he is also a warm personal friend of Secretary Hoover. His selection as national chairman of the Democratic party a "big money" aspect it has not had for many years.

Mr. Raskob is a chamberlain to the Pope by "many" benefactions from the Catholic Church and this fact it may be expected will draw much comment from Senator Heflin.

NEW BROADSIDE

The Anti-Saloon League let go today with another broadside at Gov. Smith and declared in a statement by F. Scott McBride, general league superintendent, that prohibition should not be made a campaign issue in the coming national campaign.

"The American people," McBride said, "have settled prohibition as a political issue by writing it into the Constitution, and the man who seeks to revive the liquor issue today is as unwise politically as if he were to attempt to resurrect, dueling, the lottery, or any other outgrown social evil. Prohibition rests upon the will of the overwhelming majority of voters of the land, who know full well that promises of repeal or modification by any such candidate cannot be kept, but that the election of any such candidate as Al Smith would materially aid the liquor criminals of the country by wittingly handing the reins of government to the law or the interpretation of the statutes by the appointment of complaisant judges and blind-diet officials, thus bringing about a condition worse than repeal. Any argument of the Smith partisans that their candidate would not inure prohibition is as false as the usual Tammany camouflage."

WALSH LEADER TO AID HOOVER

alliance with, or allegiance to, any corrupt political machine and the opposition to his nomination by the professional politicians in his own party may be accepted as a guarantee that he will, if elected, surround himself with men free from the influence that corrupt public servants.

Mr. Hoover is not an offensive partisan. He has a very important part in the administration of Woodrow Wilson and acquitted himself with credit to himself and the President.

It will be recalled that the late San Francisco Democratic leader, Gavin McNab, urged the nomination of Mr. Hoover for the Presidency by the Democratic party in 1920.

Coalition of Groups Viewed Ashance by Member

CHICAGO, July 11. (Exclusive)—United States Senator Norris of Nebraska was nominated tonight as the Presidential candidate of the Farmer-Labor party, despite his refusal to head any third-party ticket. The Prohibition party, also in national convention in Chicago, failed to reach the nominating stage before adjournment, but it was said there that its nomination would not be offered to Norris.

The nomination of Norris came after a telegram had been received from a correspondent who had been asked to ascertain whether Senator Norris would accept. The reply was: "Negative absolute. Recommendation impossible."

Now that is why Al Smith, and 'twas he and no other than he, did it. He had kind words about big business but no words about the platform, together with soothing tariff assurances.

He and that to assure big business generally and to soothe in particular North Carolina which today is so happy and so high protectionist, that for 3 cents it would go Republican if it thought a Democratic administration would do any severe monkeying with the tariff.

TELEGRAPHIC INQUIRY

Telegraphic inquiries were sent by a committee of six, three from each convention in session here, named to consider fusion of the two parties. The committee reported to the Prohibitionists and the Farmer-Labor group that they join issues for this year's campaign. Both delayed action on the recommendation.

Although there was sentiment in both meetings for Pinchot and Sweet, there also was opposition. There is a feeling among the Prohibitionists that Herbert Hoover, the Republican Presidential nominee, should be endorsed. Others, and this group is believed to be the largest, would let the national committee of the Prohibition party determine whether the group shall endorse a candidate or choose a candidate of its own.

When the resolution urging amalgamation of the parties was presented to the Prohibition convention H. P. Faris of Clinton, Mo., asked what the Farmer-Labor party stands for. Faris was the Prohibition candidate for President in 1924.

"If I understand its aims the

W.C.T.U. VOICE HEARD

Mrs. Eva Wheeler of Los Angeles, president of the Southern California Women's Christian Temperance Union, "called upon the Prohibition party to support Herbert Hoover for the Presidency. Mrs. Wheeler is a delegate to the convention.

She said it would be futile to organize a third-party movement even with a dry Democrat heading the ticket. "And why a dry Democrat rather than a dry Republican?" she asked.

Mrs. Wheeler discussed what she considered would be the effect of Gov. Smith's election.

SMITH CHOICES WETS

"Our Supreme Court is made up of nine justices; they are appointed by the President for life," she explained. "Some of these gentlemen are quite old. One, I believe, is 87. Because of their advanced age the next President may name more members of the court than any President in the past twenty years. We can only judge a man's future by his past. Gov. Smith has appointed twenty-one judges to the Supreme Court, the District Court or some prominent place in his State and every one has been a wet judge."

FORMER GOV. SWEET COLD TOWARD IDEA

DENVER, July 11. (P)—Former Gov. Sweet of Colorado tonight advised the Associated Press that he would "probably not look with favor" upon an movement seeking to place him at the head of a third-party coalition of the Prohibition and Farmer-Labor parties. He refused further comment.

As compared with modern airplane-mail carriers it required the Overland stage, inaugurated in 1907, after the California gold rush in 1849, three weeks to carry mail from Missouri to the Pacific Coast.

DETROIT, July 11. (Exclusive)—The first move in a program to confiscate stocks of beer and liquor in the hands of rum runners was made today when Ontario police at Windsor seized a warehouse containing 100,000 cases of beer and 100,000 cases of liquor. The warehouse was owned by a Canadian citizen and was used for the storage of liquor smuggled into the United States.

Although the police would not comment on the seizure, it is believed that the seizure of stocks along the border, with a value of approximately $50,000,000, is the first move in a program to confiscate stocks of beer and liquor in the hands of rum runners.

These stocks supply the demand for liquor in the United States and are smuggled into the United States from Canada.

PEACH QUARREL WORRIES YOUNG

Heavy Hand of Governor Fall on Committee

No State-wide Rumpus Over Prices Allowed

Breach Between Growers and Cannerymen Annoying

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11. (Exclusive)—The hand of Gov. James Rolph came down on the peach committee today to prevent a State-wide scandal in that industry over differences in price and the proposed destruction of part of the crop to keep from glutting the market.

Although the Governor's committee got the producers of 80,000 tons of the crop to agree with the canners last week on a top price of $25 per ton and an approximate 25 per cent reduction to 13,000,000 cases from an estimated total of 17,000,000 cases, the agreement was reached without the consent of 15,000 tons represented by the Sutter Co-operative Growers' Association. The net result is that the announced agreement between growers and canners was not unanimous, and the Governor quite plainly was annoyed.

He said as much in a letter under date of yesterday, addressed to O. H. Heck, director of the State Department of Agriculture, whose contents became known here today as the Governor's committee went into new sessions with representatives of the warring factions in the peach industry.

VERY MUCH TROUBLED
"I am very much troubled by the apparent disagreement between certain elements involved in the peach-peach problem," he said in opening the subject. "Unless this disagreement is settled within the next day or two, I would request you to call together your conference committee, possibly enlarging it by adding one representative from the co-operative canners."

The "request" was the first order of business as the committee swung into action at the Ferry Building today. Although the discussion was behind closed doors, Heck was authorized for the statement that F. E. Laney, president of the Sutter Co-operative Growers' Association, and leader of the standard phalanx has been named a member of the committee.

"I would ask the committee to ascertain why a harmonious working agreement has not yet been concluded," the Governor's letter continued, and the committee went into the matter with gusto, with Laney's presence one of the obvious indications of the reason why a harmonious working agreement has not been concluded.

OPPOSED TO SCALING CROP
It is known from Laney's previous statements that he is opposed violently to scaling the crop in anything like the 25 per cent proportion suggested by the Governor's committee. Among other reasons, he contends that 11,000,000 cases were packed last year on top of a 3,600,000-case carry-over from 1926, and that the entire crop was disposed of. He argues that a little more efficiency and energy in the matter of marketing will absorb the entire estimated crop of 17,000,000 cases without difficulty.

The Governor's perturbation continued to the extent of an observation that "I earnestly urge that any present difference of opinion be reconciled, in order that a firm and lasting basis may be procured for this industry, which means so much to California."

As the conclusion of today's session, early this evening, it was stated by Heck that an agreement had not yet been reached, but the indications are "favorable" that "progress was made toward an eventual solution," and that another meeting is scheduled for 2 p.m. tomorrow.

PEACE PREDICTED
What plans were suggested are not detailed, but the conference emerged from the meeting with evident indications that a smoothing of the situation is probable in the immediate future.

BAY CITY HAILS AIR HEROES

Lyon and Warner Get Tumultuous Welcome as They Arrive Home from Australian Flight

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11. (P)—Harry Lyon and James Warner, courageous American aviators supreme, came back home today to receive as tumultuous a welcome as San Francisco ever has given to illustrious citizens. On the broad deck of the huge steamer Malolo they sailed into San Francisco Bay today in safety. Last month they breezed across this same body of water and out over the Pacific in one of the most perilous undertakings ever attempted by man—a two-stop 7800-mile flight from Oakland to Australia.

Then they rode out into space on the back of the large monoplane, Southern Cross. What they helped accomplish, in company with Capt. Charles Kingsford-Smith and Charles Ulm, Australian co-pilots of the plane, already has been told in a countless procession of words. They wrote a new and vivid chapter in aviation history in becoming the first men to fly from the Continental United States to the great Commonwealth "down under."

PLAUDITS OF WORLD
Lyon, former naval lieutenant-commander and the son of Admiral Henry W. Lyon, U.S.N., retired, navigated the Southern Cross. The achievement earned him the plaudits of civilization. Treacherous air currents, typhoons, in fact, the worst moods of the elements clutched at the plane from all around. Below, the hearing coast loomed a constant threat of death. But through it all, Lyon guided the craft, first to Honolulu, then to Suva in the Fiji Islands, and finally to Brisbane, Australia. A few miles off course on either side of the two sets of land dots probably would have meant disaster.

Warner, chief naval radio operator, retired, told the world about the progress of the sturdy Southern Cross. From the tips of his nimble fingers flashed an almost unbroken story from start to finish—a tale of pluck and optimism as he grappled and palpitated as any that ever winged through the ethereal universe.

AIR TOURISTS AT SAN DIEGO

Field at noon tomorrow, the planes are to depart at 1 o'clock on the next leg of the tour, which will take them to Los Angeles.

At the city tonight's banquet will be Mayor Clark, while the visitors are to be received on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce by Jerry Sullivan, Jr., president of the Chamber. B. F. Mahoney, local plane builder, will preside at the banquet, while Lon Blodgett is to be toastmaster. The banquet is to be held at the Hotel Hamilton.

Edie Stinson and other famous flyers are scheduled to appear at the new California Theater at 9 o'clock tonight at the ball at Mission Beach at 9:45.

An added feature to the air exhibition scheduled to be held tomorrow will be the monthly of July jumps over the Barnett-avenue field, which are to be made by Archie Altherton, San Diego paratrooper, and a number of other aviators. The exhibition is to be held at the aviation department, Chamber of Commerce.

HUNDRED PLANES TO LAND AT MINES FIELD
More than 100 aircraft of types ranging from the huge air transports to tiny sport models, will land and taxi to their positions at Mines Field today at 2 p.m. when the transients in the national air tour make their spectacular arrival for the visit that will last until late on Saturday.

Twenty-two of the planes are entrants in the reliability contest for the Edsel Ford $7000 efficiency trophy and $12,000 in prize money. The others will be accompanying craft. Mines Field is prepared to handle 100,000 or more visitors who are expected to view the planes on their arrival and during their visit. The air tourists themselves number about 200, and include in the list a number of internationally famous aviators and aviatrices. Mayor Clegg will head a committee of welcome. Their headquarters will be at the Ambassador.

Entertainment planned for the visitors will include a reception at the Uplifters' Club tonight, breakfast Club session tomorrow morning, studio luncheons at noon tomorrow, and a banquet at the Ambassador tomorrow night. Saturday they will leave for San Francisco by way of Fresno. They are due in Detroit, their starting point, on the 28th inst.

The committee in charge of the welcome last night asked that all industrial plants of the city greet the flyers at 2 p.m. today with a mighty blast of whistles.

(Exclusive)—"If the Western Pacific Railroad Company has any intention of extending its lines into Los Angeles, it is not under consideration or discussion at the present time and seems 'improbable,'" according to H. M. Adams, president of the company. There have been reports in circulation to that effect on many occasions in the last several years and they were given new life today following announcement that the new Western Pacific subsidiary, the Western Pacific California Company, plans a $13,500,000 central California expansion program which includes penetration of the San Joaquin Valley as far as Bakersfield.

President Adams took cognizance of the matter in the following comment: "Now that we are going into Bakersfield, there is a report that we intend to invade Los Angeles territory. That is quite improbable. We have not even thought of it."

Speculation in railroad circles, however, continues. It was pointed out that the general principle of a railroad is to go after the business of the territory which it serves and that contiguous to it and that when a railroad enters territory new to itself, it seems reasonable to suppose that it will make a determined effort to attract to itself all the business possible.

Meanwhile, the incorporators of the Western Pacific California met here and completed the office penetration of the new company late today.

President Adams of the Western Pacific becomes president also of the Western Pacific California; E. W. Mason, vice-president and general manager of the Western Pacific, becomes vice-president of the Western Pacific California; Charles E. Kiser, Western Pacific vice-president and treasurer, becomes Western Pacific California treasurer; D. C. DeGraff, general auditor for the Western Pacific, assumes a similar capacity with the new line; W. G. Bruen will act as secretary for both lines; and Judge F. M. Angellotti was elected general counsel for the Western Pacific California. He acts in that capacity now with the parent company.

Simultaneously, it was announced that the necessary applications for the proposed new lines had been forwarded today to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

EMERYVILLE MAN KILLED
NAPA, July 11. (P)—Richard Mulline, 40 years of age, of Emeryville, was killed, and H. J. Hynow, also of Emeryville, and C. S. Lockwood of Oakland, were injured when their automobile left the highway at a curve nine miles north of here today.

The Senator asserted the moving picture industry is "a well established and thoroughly legitimate agent of publicity and the Republicans expect to use it legitimately."

Total Air Mail in June Easily Tops May Mark

WASHINGTON, July 11. (P)—An increase of 10,381 pounds in mail carried by air in June was announced today by Postmaster-General New.

The June total of 209,798 pounds topped the May figure of 199,409 pounds easily and is the highest monthly total yet recorded.

The Chicago-San Francisco route with 89,183 pounds and the New York-Chicago route with 88,615 pounds, more than doubled the total of their nearest competition, the Salt Lake City-Los Angeles line which carried 22,089 pounds during the month.

Other routes showed: Salt Lake City-Fresno, 7532; Seattle-Los Angeles, 8723.

Hearing Set on 400 Mile Road

BOISE (Idaho) July 11. (P)—A hearing on an application for construction of a railroad which will reduce the haul from Southern Idaho to San Francisco and Los Angeles by nearly 400 miles will open in Portland, Or., the 30th inst. It was announced here today by the Public Utilities Commission.

The proposed railroad would run from Crane, Harney county, Or., across Southern Oregon to Odell Junction and there join the coastal lines reaching to the Southern California markets.

Board Passes College Site

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11. (P)—The State Board of Education, at the quarterly session here today, approved the site donated in San Diego for a new $1,000,000 State Teachers' College.

The site was given by the Alphonso Bell and H. A. Lloyd Investment Company, which also presented the board with a check for $50,000. The city of San Diego has assured the board it will buy the old site for $250,000.

Presidential Physician Turned Over to Hatchery Fish Seemingly Ill With Goiter

SUPERIOR (Wis.) July 11. (AP)—Good health is so general at the summer White House that President Coolidge has turned his physician over to the treatment and care of the Cedar Island Lodge trout. The fish in the famous hatcheries on the lodge estate developed a strange goiter-like ailment that deformed them and sapped their vitality. The hatchery attendants were helpless and watched with dismay the growths swell on the trout's necks. It remained for Col. James F. Coughlin, White House physician, to diagnose and cure the evil.

He came to the conclusion that the little trout, which previously had not had enough energy to feign their food, were darting hither and thither full of energy.

Col. Coughlin called for a bottle of iodine solution. He dropped three drops of it into the vats containing the small fish. Within five minutes

ROMANCE OF ILL-GOTTEN GAIN
ENDS IN MAN'S ARREST AS BUM

CHICAGO, July 11. (Exclusive)—George W. Anderson, former teller of the Calumet National Bank, charged with having embezzled $50,000 from that institution several months ago, was turned over to the Federal authorities today. The teller's capture was an anticlimax to his romantic history since leaving Chicago.

The police received a telephone message from a woman.

"I wish you'd send some policeman over here," she said. "There's a drunken bum living in the basement. He's a nuisance. Please get him out."

The "drunken bum" was in a sorry state, his bare toes were sticking through holes in dilapidated shoes, and he had 30 cents left of the fortune he is accused of embezzling. He admitted he was the long-sought teller.

"I went to France to try to recoup my losses in playing the stock market," Anderson told the police. "I bucked the roulette wheel at Monte Carlo and it took about everything I had. Then I joined the Foreign Legion and they sent me to Algeria. I got tired of that, too, and took French leave. I finally got back to Chicago and wound up where you found me—in a basement."

Anderson, who is 36 years of age, and the husband of a niece of Emil G. Seip, president of the bank, was an employee in high regard at the time of his disappearance.

TAXI PASTOR RECEIVES JOLT

Patron Accompanied by Much-Painted Woman Recognized as Member of His Former Flock

[This is the fifth of six articles by Rev. Thomas H. Whelpley, pastor of Chelsea Presbyterian Church, 214 West Twenty-third street, New York City. In them he is telling of his study of the flaming life of Manhattan from the driver's seat of a nightcab taxi.]

BY REV. THOMAS H. WHELPLEY
[Copyright, 1935, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, July 11. (Exclusive)—After I had been piloting my dilapidated taxi in and out of the New York streets for a week and a day the manager of the cab company sent for me. I thought I was fired. But to my delight he informed me that as a cabby a preacher is not such a bad bet. He had decided I could take out one of his new cabs.

Saturday night, and a brand new peek-a-boo cab, one of those cozy little affairs with port-hole windows.

I hurried out to pick-up the after-dinner crowd. I was hailed right and left. It seems everybody wants to ride in a peek-a-boo cab.

Before I had turned the corner a man raised his cane. In my cabby clothes, my cap pulled down over my eyes, he didn't recognize me.

But I recognized him at once—a former member of my first congregation in a small New England city. A respected man in his home town, with a devoted wife and a couple of fine youngsters.

He handed in a much-painted and perfumed young woman, climbed in after her and ordered me in grand manner to a fashionable hotel. They disappeared in the lobby, the girl's high-pitched laughter trailing after them. This was not very reassuring. It took the edge off my enthusiasm about the new cab.

FRIEND IN NEED
Down the street a petty officer, a couple of sailors and two or three civilians were having a bad time with another sailor. They all were for putting him into my cab. He was a huge lad and fighting drunk. He was all for staying out of my cab.

A tussle started and at last they succeeded in throwing him into the cab, with such violence that he fell out the door on the other side into the street, where he sprawled.

His companions went after him, picked him up, and the row started all over again. It was a good ten minutes before they had him in to stay. The petty officer directed me to take him to a pier, he designated, and prepaid him. The sailor fell sound asleep in the few minutes it took to get there. I hailed him out and set him on his feet.

"Ya arite, buddy," he said thickly. "Yerra frien, arite. A fella needs a frien in this Sodden 'n Gomer-cab."

He staggered off in the general direction of his ship.

WOMAN PASSENGER
About 2 o'clock in the morning a shrill voice hailed me.

"Take me down to the ferry, buddy," a woman commanded. My experience as a taxi-driver with ladies of the night had not been too profitable or pleasant. But I pulled up and she climbed in.

"Step on it," she said. "I want to get out of this place! Let her have him—the she-devil! Will ya step on it? What kind of a driver are you, anyhow?"

I had started toward the docks when my lady rapped sharply on the glass.

"Turn around," she yelled. "Turn around! Don't you hear? Go back! She'll not get him! He's mine!"

At the cheap lodging-house she threw a bill at me and without waiting for change rushed up the dark steps.

CONY ISLAND TRIP
Four men directed me to go to Cony Island. I never had been to Cony Island and didn't know the way. By the time we got to Williamsburg Bridge they had called me every name under the sun.

"When you get across the bridge, dumbbell," they said, "stop. We'll get somebody to drive us that knows his stuff."

But we didn't get across. Halfway, I skidded into the bridge rail. My four passengers piled out, refused to pay the meter charge and went their way cursing. I turned back and joined the crowd in the bright lights again.

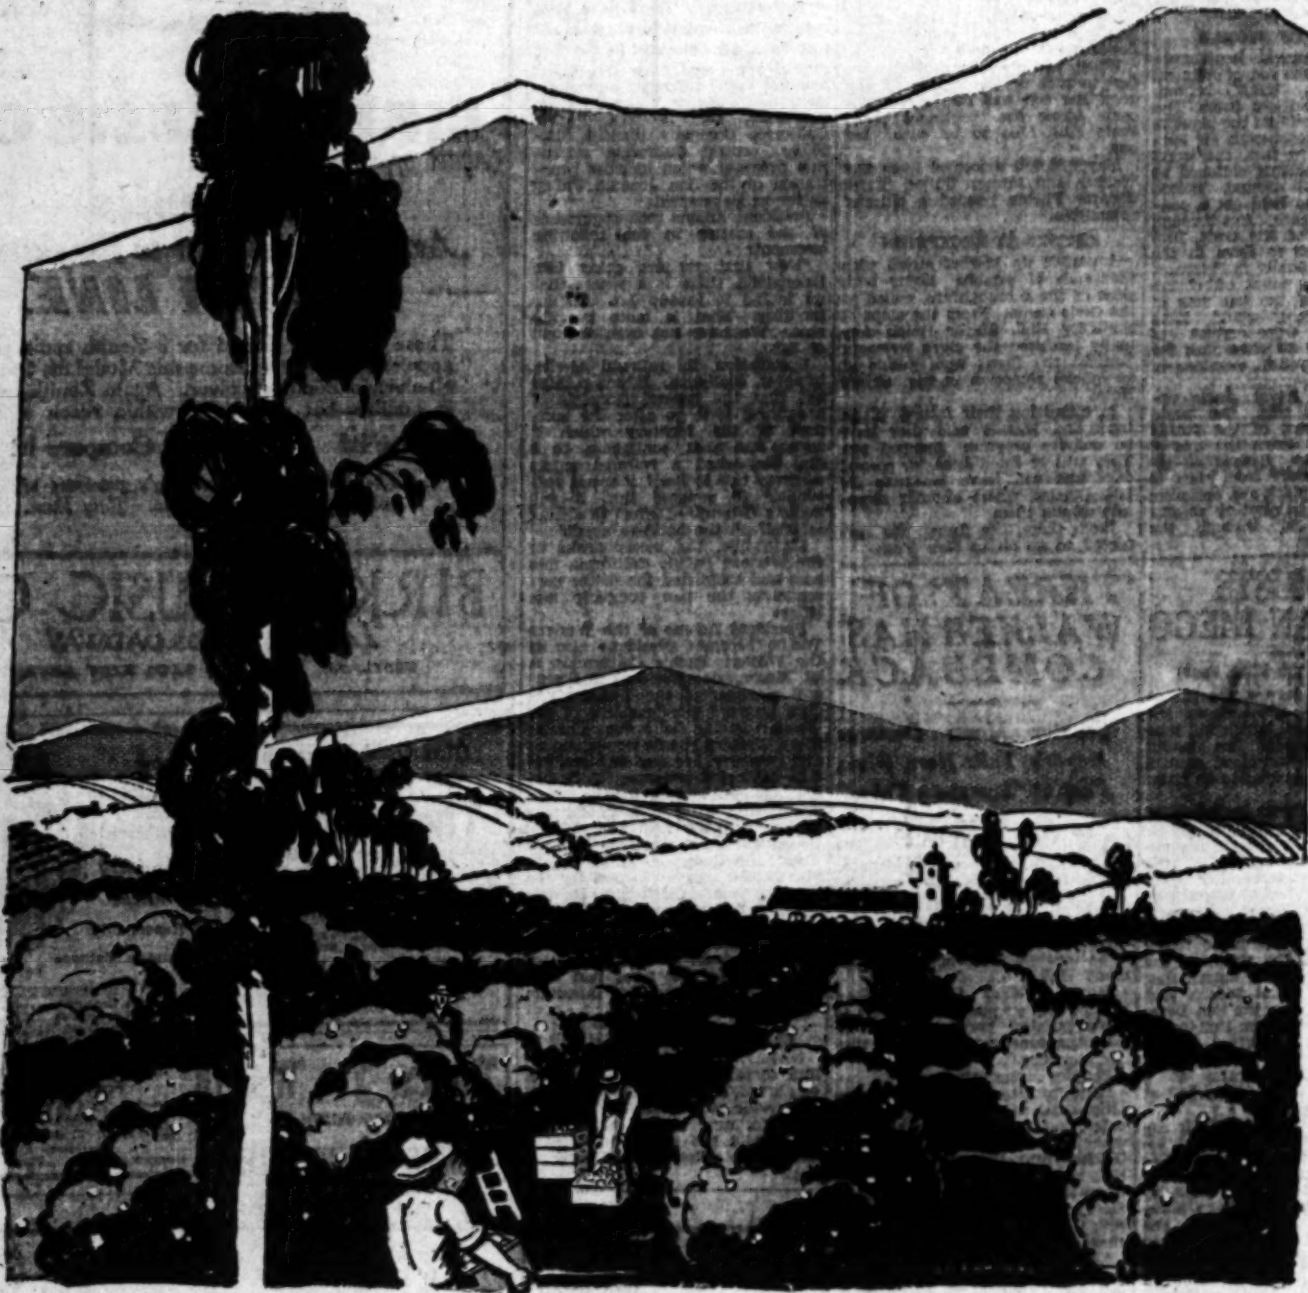

As I cruised about in the great roar of the city the towering noise and confusion brought familiar words to my mind, the words of Genesis—eleventh chapter.

(AP)—The six-passenger Polar plane, belonging to Commander Byrd, which dropped down on the Nogales Airport Sunday evening, continued its test and demonstration flight yesterday morning, pointing its nose toward Cajeme, Sonora. A personal interview with Gen. Obregon was the object of the trip south it is stated by Edward T. Hitchman, secretary of the flight. The plane is piloted by O. E. Haynes and George E. Conklin.

PILSUDSKI DECIDES TO STAY IN POLAND
WARSAW, July 11. (Exclusive)—Marshal Josef Pilsudski, who was scheduled to take a vacation in Rumania, has postponed his trip and will remain in Poland. The Polish papers assert that he is staying because the opposition is very restless and he wants to be near the capital so he is able to quell possible trouble.

Sunkist Fruit Growers use UNION Non-detonating Gasoline

In their lumber and box making operations this non-detonating fuel has proved its dependability

SOMEWHERE deep in the cool shaded forests of Northern California the camp stillness is broken by muffled murmurs. They gradually ascend in note to a rhythmic purr—and break into a smooth continuous roar as the giant Sunkist logging caterpillars emerge, bringing their awkward burdens of the day to the box factories.

Here, in the lumbering operations around Hilt and Susanville, Union non-detonating gasoline is used exclusively—and in tank-car quantities.

Sunkist—now correctly known as the California Fruit Growers Exchange, is considered the most successful co-operative growers' organization in the world. 11,000 grower members utilize its facilities. Sales totaled $110,000,000 last year. 2,500,000,000 oranges marked "S-U-N-K-I-S-T" were consumed in 1934.

This great organization has "success-tested" Union non-detonating gasoline in the rigid outdoor laboratory of the West's mountainous lumber country.

What "Success Tested" Means to You

Of course you can't give the gasoline you use a laboratory test, but the great institutions who do check results for mileage and power can be your yardsticks. These firms have "service-tested" gasoline. They are successful firms. They not only use Union for its brilliant performance, but for its absolute uniformity. The Union Shield is a mark of "Success Tested" quality for you.

Stanford Hurdler Taken to Amsterdam, But Not as a Competitor

NEW YORK, July 11. (AP)—Hard upon the favorable decision which placed Charles Paddock aboard the President Roosevelt, as it sailed from this port today bearing Olympic competitors to Amsterdam, came a verdict which enabled two other athletes to accompany the team—Ross Nichols, the Stanford hurdler, and Lisa Lindstrom, the girl swimmer. Nichols was tripped by a misplaced hurdle in the final of the 110-meter dash event at the Harvard Stadium last Saturday, and failed to qualify after equalling the world's record in a semifinal heat. He was taken to Amsterdam, not as a competitor, but as an aide to Maj.-Gen. Markkula, president of the American Olympic committee.

Miss Lindstrom was added to the women's swimming team as a regular competitor. She slipped at the start of her final tryout and failed to qualify in spite of a previous fine showing.

Fullerton Pitches Fine Ball as Hollywood Cops and Evens Series

SEATTLE, July 11.—Curt Fullerton, who has once more begun pitching winning ball for Hollywood, held the Seattle Indians to seven scattered hits here today and the Stars evened up the series by annexing a 5-to-2 victory.

The Stars cleaned ten hits off the offerings of Kyle Graham and Bud Teachout, bunching enough safeties in four innings to score their runs. Cleo Carlyle and Johnny Basler led the visitors' attack with three hits apiece, the former getting two doubles. The Stars scored one in the first, another in the

OAKS SCORE THIRTEEN RUNS IN FOURTH, SWAMP SERAPHS

BY BOB RAY
After winning one straight, Marty Krug's Angels went back into their losing ways with a vengeance yesterday at Wrigley Field where Ivan Howard's Oaks buried them under a 20-to-1 score.

In piling up their emphatic triumph the Oaks put on one of the best rallies in Coast League history when they tallied no less than thirteen runs in the fourth inning. Eleven hits, three of them home runs, a walk and a hit batsman figured in the scoring spurge, and if it hadn't been for an Angel rookie pitcher, Harry Chesley by name, it is quite possible that the side never would have been retired in this hectic round. The only batter Tex Wetherby and Doc Wright, the victims of the slaughter, retired, was Monroe Dean, who made the mistake of sacrificing when everybody else was hitting.

After the thirteen runs were in, Chesley took the mound and got rid of Cooper and Reese for the needed two outs.

"Irish" Muesel and Ernie Lombardi were the big guns of the Oakland attack. Both

Harry Eichelberger Wins Two Matches in Advance Toward State Junior Golf Championship

MACBETH ALSO IN FINE FORM

Long Beach Star Eliminates Warren Johnson, 3-2

Winston Fuller is Defeated by San Jose Youth

Juniors Hover Near Par in Del Monte Tourney

DEL MONTE (Cal.) July 11. (AP)—Great golf and exciting matches were the rule instead of the exception in today's first and second match play rounds of the California junior golf championship here.

E. F. Coombs, Long Beach, had to shoot par golf to beat Warren Johnson, Los Angeles star, 3 and 2, in this afternoon's quarter-final. Harry Eichelberger, Los Angeles, defeated Rudy Rain, Claremont, 3 and 1, finishing one even par, after disposing of Dan Sauter, another Los Angeles favorite, 1 up this morning.

Bob Ballin, San Jose, surprised the gallery by downing Winston Fuller, crack Los Angeles junior, 4 and 3. He finished two over par, due principally to his marvelous short game. He sank a phenomenal approach on the eleventh.

Norman Macbeth, Jr., Los Angeles, went to the nineteenth to put out Hugh Hill, Bakersfield youngster. Almost all of the juniors were hovering close to par all day.

Jack Finger, Crystal Springs, who barely missed the first division, shot five birdies this morning and an eagle on the ninth this afternoon, when he defeated Barrett Dobb, Jr., Santa Cruz, 4 and 1.

R. O. Pieper, San Jose, defeated Francis Conlan, San Francisco, 3 and 2, in the second flight of the second round.

Pairings for tomorrow's semifinals are: First flight, Eichelberger vs. Ballin; Coombs vs. Macbeth. Second flight, Finger vs. Henderson; Pieper vs. French. The thirty-six-hole finals will be played Friday.

Missions Swat Portland Team

PORTLAND (Or.) July 11. (AP)—The Mission got a three-run lead in the first inning today on a double, three singles and three bases on balls, one of them with the bases full, and never relinquished it.

They won, 9 to 3. Bill Hughes was far more alert tonight than the five Portland runs indicate. They all made late in the game after his lead was so big that he eased up.

Grattan Bars Wins Toledo Pacing Event

TOLEDO (O.) July 11. (AP)—Before 10,000 spectators and on a track that was lightning fast Grattan Bars, owned by Fred Throver of Kewport, Ont., and driven by Vic Fleming of Cleveland, raced to a sensational victory in straight heats in the $25,000 stake event for Class A pacers at Port Miami Park here today.

The horse won $15,000 for his owners. In his first start in the Grand Circuit and his first start on a mile track, the remarkable bay horse which is by Grattan Royal-Polly Bars by Monbars, literally raced a wonderful field into the ground and took a record of 1m. 59.1-2s. in winning the first heat.

It was in the first heat that Grattan Bars found his greatest competition, for Louis Direct, driven by Fred Egan, refused to be beaten until the closing strides.

Bob Ballin, San Jose, surprised the gallery by downing Winston Fuller, crack Los Angeles junior, 4 and 3. He finished two over par, due principally to his marvelous short game. He sank a phenomenal approach on the eleventh.

Norman Macbeth, Jr., Los Angeles, went to the nineteenth to put out Hugh Hill, Bakersfield youngster. Almost all of the juniors were hovering close to par all day.

Jack Finger, Crystal Springs, who barely missed the first division, shot five birdies this morning and an eagle on the ninth this afternoon, when he defeated Barrett Dobb, Jr., Santa Cruz, 4 and 1.

R. O. Pieper, San Jose, defeated Francis Conlan, San Francisco, 3 and 2, in the second flight of the second round.

Pairings for tomorrow's semifinals are: First flight, Eichelberger vs. Ballin; Coombs vs. Macbeth. Second flight, Finger vs. Henderson; Pieper vs. French. The thirty-six-hole finals will be played Friday.

TEAM MATCHES ON GOLF BILL

Girard Invitational Play Starts Tomorrow

Southland Linkmen Clash in Handicap Tilts

Prizes in Three Divisions to Go to Winners

BY FRANK ROCHE
Southern California's fraternal order of tournament golf steps into the spotlight tomorrow morning at the Girard Country Club where the qualifying round of the annual invitation-best-ball tournament sponsored by the Victor Girard gets under way.

The list for the tournament reads like the "Who's Who" of Southern California golf. Besides the regulars a number of the old-timers have returned to the field for the tournament. Perry Ferguson, manager of the Girard Club, declares:

Among those entered are E. V. "Rocky" Anderson of Los Angeles, George Cornes, his teammate; Paul Jones of Rancho, Harlow Hurley of the Los Angeles Country Club, Charles Johnson of the same club, Bill Campbell of the Los Angeles Club, Dick Smith of Rancho, S. M. "Mac" Macfarlane of the Los Angeles Club, and Perry Ferguson, manager of the Girard Club.

Match play in the tournament will start on Saturday. The semifinals and finals will be held Sunday. Under rules of the tournament which will be conducted on a handicap basis the players must be in the same class, but they do not have to be from the same club.

The entries are as follows: Class A, Anderson, Cornes, Johnson, Hurley, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class B, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class C, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class D, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class E, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class F, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class G, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class H, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

Class I, Hurley, Johnson, Jones, Macfarlane, Ferguson, Campbell, Smith, Macbeth, Jr., and Macbeth, Sr.

RABBIT PUNCHES

A MISSING STUNT

EVEN the flying leap took a back seat during the hectic competition for berths on the boat to Amsterdam. This is apparent from a study of the pictures of the sprint races at Boston last week-end. Mr. Charles William Paddock, the hero of the baby-blue running pants and leading exponent of the flying leap, was too busy catching the boat to bother about it and none of the other boys had one left at the tape.

They were concentrated on watching one another, making sure they were one of the select four who won free trips to Amsterdam. The photo showing the finish of the 200 meters is particularly interesting in this respect.

Charley Borah is out in front by a good yard, finishing easily. Paddock and Scholz are straining, watching each other like hawks, battling grimly for the coveted second spot. Paddock got it. Cummings, the fourth man, has his eyes on Roland Locke, who seems to be an eyelash behind. Borah, in front, and Locke and Sharkey, who finished fifth and sixth, respectively, are the only ones of the six runners in the finals who left the matter up to the judges. Apparently the judges aren't regarded any too highly in the East. The boys do their own picking. Then, in case of a squawk, they can press their point because they were right on the scene of action and should know whereof they speak.

Now that the Taylor-Vacca bout is out of the way it will be much easier to compare the "Terror of Terre Haute" and Fidel La Barba, the retired tycoon king who is about to make a comeback.

The returning hero, who is now what you might call a spent champion because he can no longer make the weight and intends to fight at cross weights, had three fights with Vacca and only won one of them.

This is a percentage of 333. Compare this with Taylor's record of one fight with Vacca for a 1,000 average and Mr. La Barba is at a distinct disadvantage.

But there are several factors which do not show in the percentage. Every fighter has a nemesis—a guy who is tough for him but easy for the other fellow. Vacca was La Barba's nemesis. Fidel was all but knocked out in the first bout, dropped a decision the second time and won his only verdict against the "Organ Grinder" in this city just before he retired last fall.

Taylor has lost some of his marvelous speed of hand and foot in the past year, and this will be a point in La Barba's favor unless Fidel, too, has slipped as a result of his year's lay-off. This will be determined next week when he meets Huerta Evans, no set-up in any man's fight even if he has not fought professionally as long as La Barba. He is a product of the Blake school at the L.A.A.C. although brought along by Clayton Frye, a Blake pupil.

TOUGH ON NICHOLS
[T] DOES seem that the record of Bob Nichols this season was evidence enough of his right to be taken to Amsterdam as a competitor after it was proved that he tripped over a misplaced hurdle when he was leading in the finals at Boston the other day. However, as an all-time Gen. McArthur, Nichols probably won't find the trip hard to take.

The Stanford boy won the I.C.A.A.A. championship in handy fashion, defeating John Collier of Brown, who placed second at Annapolis at Boston. He won his Olympic trial bout in impressive fashion, and apparently was due to finish first in the final bout for a hurdle that had tangled with his next-door neighbor in some fashion and was as high higher at one end than customary. Ah, he doesn't seem much, but when the boys figure their clearance in fractions it's as good as a mile.

ACE HUDKINS, ACTOR
[T]S novel, anyway, the enactment of the last two rounds of the Hudkins-Walker fight at Chicago which Promoter Carlo Curtis promises as an added "tid-bit" at the Main-street gym next Saturday night.

The pseudo-Mickey Walker hasn't been selected yet, but the young man who draws the assignment has a tempestuous six minutes ahead of him. Ace Hudkins can't pull his punches in ring or gym. He tried it against Kid Bakosky at Hollywood one night, and the result was terrible.

HUDKINS HAS LOST SOME OF HIS MARVELOUS SPEED OF HAND AND FOOT IN THE PAST YEAR, AND THIS WILL BE A POINT IN LA BARBA'S FAVOR UNLESS FIDEL, TOO, HAS SLIPPED AS A RESULT OF HIS YEAR'S LAY-OFF. THIS WILL BE DETERMINED NEXT WEEK WHEN HE MEETS HUERTA EVANS, NO SET-UP IN ANY MAN'S FIGHT EVEN IF HE HAS NOT FIGHTED PROFESSIONALLY AS LONG AS LA BARBA. HE IS A PRODUCT OF THE BLAKE SCHOOL AT THE L.A.A.C. ALTHOUGH BROUGHT ALONG BY CLAYTON FRYE, A BLAKE PUPIL.

FALCON AND POLLOCK WIN JUNIOR OLYMPIC TITLES

medals for placing high in the various events. Junior and senior athletes with three, silver medals for first, third and fourth places and seven medals for high standings on the individual events.

Added to the trophies, Johnny Falcon, as senior champion, and Mushy Pollock, as junior champion, will receive a nice six weeks' trip through Europe with all expenses paid by the Junior Olympic Games committee.

They will be accompanied and chaperoned by Walker Stone of the Junior Olympic committee and will sail Saturday, the first of September, first stop at the International Olympic Games at Amsterdam.

Johnny Falcon's progress to the national level is a sign of stalwarted achievement in which he battled right along and placed high in every event on the program. He took first in the seventy-five-yard dash with a mark of 8-4-2, second in the broad jump with a leap of 10-10, and third with thirteen yards in the short.

on Hesp and then he changed his mind and when it looked as though the San Bernardino boy was hopelessly out of it but the little blond youngster patted his back and said, "Don't worry, I'll help you." He clinched him over the bar twenty-five times for first place and a gold medal.

While he dropped exhausted from the bar he was only eight points back of Pollock and he got a wonderful cheer from the huge crowd.

Little Jerry Deal gets the hard-luck prize for being the runner-up. He started off with a good 7-1/2 yard dash in 9-1/2, but fell down back in the broad jump, finishing off 7-1/2-in. which is a foot better of his customary record. He went into the basketball game with the appearance of a man on the running - but electrified the crowd by shooting eighteen out of twenty, including a run of thirteen straight in the fourth quarter. He scored more baskets than any other youngster, junior or senior. Jerry's basketball game was set for the next afternoon.

His fraction was a little less than his customary throw, but good baseball, third, baseball throw with a toss of 269ft., and finally, first in the chain of 100 ft. and 200 ft. Such consistency was very deserving of victory.

There isn't much about Falcon that isn't a record. He won his first meet with a good score. He then went to the Monrovia district meet and took it with 559 points. He then went to the Santa Ana meet with 577 points. He won the Southern California meet with 685 points and finally today captured the title with a score of 711 points. How "that" for improvement and consistency?

Mike Pina put up a tough battle in the first place. He ran fairly well but got off to a bad broad jump. With the basketball, however, he began to improve and by ringing the bell he had won the title. He captured himself a nice gold medal in that event. His baseball throw was approximately up to his regular level and he came in with a good jump up twenty-eight before weakening, which brought him from sixth place to third.

From a San Diego started strongly with a fast dash and a good broad jump and third place in the basketball throw but his consistency was not there. He came in from going right up at the top. His consistency, however, gave him a second place in the chain of 100 ft. enough to leave him in second place in the chain of 200 ft. and strong event coming up.

There, however, he ran into his tough luck. The chinning judges were not strict enough in the competition and Jerry, after chinning himself successfully seven times and getting four more, was disqualified on the eighth. Technically, rested his chin on the bar and because of this technicality was ruled, out dropping him to second place. He was still a strong contender for the title. Jerry, however, is as good as a sport. He is an athlete and finding out that he had lost the title spent every effort to help the other Southern Californians grab the honors. He has a nice cup and a number of medals for his trouble, however.

There can be no question that the success of the Southern California athletes was due to their all-around ability. As might be expected, each fell down in one or more of the events on the program but they all showed real fighting spirit and picked up on the other events. It is a pity that good luck did not suitably favor any of them but the only one who can be said to have been one of 330 points and fourth place. The opening event was the 100-yard dash, the most unexciting competition imaginable between two of the finest 100-yard athletes that ever lived in Mexico. Pollock and Rex Heap of San Bernardino. Pollock is one of the finest 100-yard athletes of his size in the world and is a very worthy champion, but it is nearly taking any credit away from the San Diego youngster to say that Pollock's upright flight from a crouch start alone is one of the greatest exhibitions imaginable.

Pollock got off like a flash with his splendid 75-yard dash in 2 3/4, while Heap ran 3.5. But Pollock then built up a huge lead with a broad jump of 8 ft. 2 in. and at the end of the event had a lead of more than twenty points on the field. Rex got some of these points back with his bounding 100-yard dash, but Pollock forged ahead again with a throw in the baseball of more than 200 feet to 163 for loss.

When they came around to the last event of the day, the shining, Pollock had a lead of thirty points ordinary luck and Jerry would have been alongside of Pollock and Heap battling for the title.

The presence of the boys' coaches, who were sent by their home communities, was very valuable. Coach Eliza and Coach Deal, J. C. Prior after Falcon and Joe Colley did double duty with Heap and Fina. Director Boyd Comstock, who generally supervises the performance of all the boys from Southern California, said tonight that he regarded the clean sweep made by the Southern California Olympic athletes as something of which he was very bit as proud as he was of winning the national track-and-field championship with his L.A.A.C. track team at Boston last week.

CHUCKLES from LIFE

Wanted: A Liberator
Now that a... has been emancipated, who will strike the shackles from the chains of Science?
We have Free Verse, Free Sculpture, Free Painting—What about a Free History, or a Free Algebra for a change?
As a teacher, I have met in the classroom quite a number of emancipated mathematicians, unhappily unconscious, however, of their glorious anarchy.
"Why don't you change the sign when you transpose?" I say, waving my birch over some trembling lunthead.
"I forgot," says he.
"Aha," I cry—"you forgot!"—And I straightway proceed to "lost" over the unfortunate child.
But some day I shall meet my Waterloo. Some day I shall rebuke the wrong child; and he—dressed probably by a Cubist and damned by a Dadaist—will defiantly reply to my rebuke:
"But, sir, I did not change the sign, because I am an Anarchist. I did not change the sign, because I think x ought to come and go exactly as it pleases. I did not change the sign, because I am a believer in Free Algebra!"

Then all the children will stand on the desks, and wave Free Algebras in my face. And I shall lose my job.
CYRIL B. EAGAN.
One Perfect Rose
A single flow'r he sent me, since we met.
All tenderly his messenger he chose:
Deep-hearted, pure, with scented dew still wet—
One perfect rose.
I knew the language of the flower:
"My fragile leaves," it said, "his heart inclose."
Love long has taken for his amulet
One perfect rose.
Why is it no one ever sent me yet
One perfect limousine, do you suppose?
But no, it's always just my luck to get
One perfect rose.

Contained within this tiny and truly beautiful is a miracle of Music! The keyboard is extensive size, yet this instrument plays the standard 88-note recording (including the large "Record Library"). All mechanism is contained within the drawer beneath the piano and in no way interferes with the use of this instrument for straight playing. You will thoroughly enjoy the splendid TONE of this Schulz Marionette!—This is without doubt the smallest reproducing piano that has ever been made for actual use. We heartily recommend it to music lovers whose Homes are "cozily built."

PARIS DIVORCES BELIEVED VALID

All Cases Since January 1, 1926, Scrutinized

Every American Law Firm in French City Quizzed

Inquiry Into "Mill" Charges
Now Completed

PARIS, July 11. (AP)—Every American divorce lawyer in Paris, or at least a representative of his firm, has been before the investigating committee in the "American divorce mill" inquiry with all the papers and documents in his case, and all the American divorces granted in Paris since January 1, 1926, are regarded as unquestioned in validity.

The investigation has been completed and now is out of the investigating magistrate's hands. All the papers, including the magistrate's recommendations for sanctions and penalties, have been turned over to the civil court for judgment, and the inquiry will not be reopened unless specifically requested in law by one of the parties in such divorces.

BEGAN SOME MONTHS AGO
The investigation began some months ago, when, after a particularly speedy prominent American divorce, Minister of Justice, Andre Grenet, who in turn took Clerk Chi-bot to task. Chibot, unwilling to bear the entire burden of responsibility, spoke to a friend in Parliament, who took the matter before Premier Poincare and the latter instructed M. Barthelemy to investigate all American divorces granted in the years 1926 and 1927.

"Unethical conduct" was found against certain French attorneys, who in turn gave the investigating magistrate the names of the American legal firms employing them, resulting in the placing of all American firms handling cases under scrutiny and calling upon them to produce their papers.

FEE LARGER
The procedure followed by the American firms in divorce cases was to place the facts of the divorce application before some French attorneys—American lawyers are not permitted to plead in French courts —with the statement that the fee would be so much. It is said that the American lawyers' idea of suitable fees was so much higher than the usual French retainer that the French attorneys became generous with the court stipends. In some cases American firms are reported to have admitted promising a bonus to the French attorneys if a decree was obtained within a certain time.
The American Embassy has refrained from any action in the matter, as no charges have been placed against any American lawyers. The Embassy's one connection with the divorce question was to forward to the Foreign Office in Algiers, by a commission of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church regarding the divorce situation in France as it affected Americans.

This is stated to have been a routine action, as such inquiries for statistics reach the Embassy daily and are transmitted to the proper French officials. This divorce questionnaire never was answered by the Foreign Office, and as it antedates the present inquiry by six months it is not supposed to have had any connection with it.

Eighteen Face Murder Trial

BEIRUT (Syria) July 11. (AP)— Eighteen persons are being held for trial for the murder of Kallil Saleeby, Syrian artist, and his American wife.

A gendarme pursued the eighteen suspects into the village of Betaljoun. He was shot down and killed.
His assailants attempted to escape by automobile but gendarmes had surrounded the village and captured them.

Saleeby and his wife were assasinated Saturday night within a few yards of their doorway. Sixteen knife wounds were found in the body of M. Saleeby. Mrs. Saleeby, a clerk in the American Consulate at Beirut, was Carrie Bird of Lexington, Ky.

Slide Hampers Mine Rescuers

POTTSVILLE (Pa.) July 11. (AP) Seeking to reach three miners entombing by an explosion, rescue workers today were further hampered by a second fall of rock in the Lytle Colliery at Lytle, near here.

Rescue squads had just blasted a huge rock which barred their entrance to breast No. 62, where it is believed the men sought safety, when a second fall blocked progress.
It was estimated that 500 tons of rock and coal fell.

Yesterday workers found the safety lamps and coats of the miners.

GRANDSON OF HILL MADE TRAINMASTER

KIN OF FAMOUS RAILROAD
BUILDER LEARNING BUSINESS FROM SECTION HAND UP

GREAT FALLS (Mont.) July 11.
(AP)—At the next step in learning the business in which his famous grandfather, the late James J. Hill, brought transportation facilities to the Northwest, Louis W. Hill today became trainmaster of the Butte division of the Great Northern. He arrived here this afternoon and reported to Fred Wear, division superintendent. His father is chairman of the Great Northern board of directions.

Young Hill's first railroad job was that of a section hand. From that he advanced to various other positions, last before his arrival here having been that of trainmaster of the Cascade division in Washington.
He is about 25 years of age.

CONDEMNED MAN VOLUNTARILY RETURNS TO JAIL DEATH CELL

UNION CITY (Tenn.) July 11. (AP)— Johnnie Vaughn, 21 years of age slayer of his rival in love, was back in the death cell of the County Jail here today after spending five days in West Illinois woods while deputies searched West Tennessee for him. Vaughn, under death sentence, escaped from jail last Thursday night with four companions by cutting a hole in the jail wall.

He telephoned Sheriff J. R. Mc-Cain from his home yesterday and told the officer: "I'm ready for my room." The startled Sheriff led the youth back to jail, where he must wait until the State Supreme Court reviews his case.

At the jail the slayer told Mc-Cain: "I didn't want to wrong you," and added that he left jail to attend to some "business" and expected to return the next morning.

He didn't say what the "business" was. A note was found in Vaughn's cell after he escaped which said he would "be back tomorrow."
He was convicted of killing Roland Bell last March and sentenced to the electric chair.

Boy Bicyclist Killed by Two Speeding Cars

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11. (AP)— Run over by two hit-and-run motorists, an unidentified boy about 14 years of age died at a hospital here last night.

The boy was taken to the hospital
by Mike Pollsi, vegetable grower, who said two speeders rushed past his truck just south of the city limits. He said he heard a crash and himself struck a riderless bicycle with his truck a moment later. The boy's body was found fifty feet from where Pollsi found the bicycle.

Pollsi was arrested as a suspect but was released when other witnesses told of seeing the accident.
They said the boy's bicycle was struck by one automobile, which knocked the lad to the pavement, where he was run over by the second machine. Neither of the speeders stopped to investigate the accident.

Teuton Charged With Selling Air Secrets to Reds

BERLIN, July 11. (AP)—Government Construction Engineer Ludwig is under arrest today charged with selling secrets of German air construction to soviet Russia. He was employed at the important experimental station of the Transportation Ministry at Adlershof, near Berlin.

Ludwig also is under suspicion of having acted similarly when employed previously by two airplane manufacturers. These are understood to be the Junkers company and the Dornier company.

All the new types of construction and invention are tried out at Ad-lershof. But since Ludwig held a subordinate position the government does not believe he was able to divulge important information.

Charity and Education to be Chief Objectives

MIAMI (Fla.) July 11. (AP)— America's Elks, in session here today, voted to establish a $20,000,000 trust fund for use in charitable, educational and benevolent enterprises.
It will be known as the Elks' National Foundation. The plan calls for appointment of a committee of seven trustees with plenary power to develop and administer the foundation to the accomplishment of its purposes.

The delegation also heard reports from a national memorial headquarters committee and a committee representing the Elks' magazine.

During the six years the magazine has been in existence, the report stated, the average annual net surplus has amounted to $193,999.34 for an aggregate of $1,163,796.04. Of the total surplus, $350,000 was spent to defray the cost of a new dormitory and heating plant at the Elks' National Home at Bedford, Va.

THRILL LACKING IN OCEAN FLIGHT

Going to Europe Just Travel, Says Miss Earhart

Excitement and Darkness
Foil Talk and Weariness

Mechanic Doubts Immediate Regular Service

NEW YORK, July 11. (AP)—It doesn't feel any different to go to Europe by plane than to go by any other means, Miss Amelia Earhart, first woman trans-Atlantic passenger, said tonight in an address broadcast from the Madison Square Garden.

Wilmer Stultz, pilot of her plane, Friend, and Lou Gordon, the mechanic and third member of the venture, also gave the radio audience their impressions of an ocean flight.

Here are Miss Earhart's impressions as she imparted them to her audience:

DARKNESS ENVELOPS
"The engines kept roaring and one man sits up at the controls with a set look on his face and the lives of those with him resting on his shoulders. After a while it gets dark and an occasional flash of light or the blue flame of the exhaust is the only thing that breaks the darkness."

"Somehow the dark hours did not seem long. It was all like a dream. There was nothing we could do. We couldn't talk on account of the roaring of the engines. The excitement kept us from being hungry. Though we had a few ham sandwiches and a bottle of coffee, I know I ate only two sandwiches during the whole trip."

NO SCENERY
"We could not look at the scenery—there wasn't any scenery except darkness. We had adventures to be sure. Bill kept at the controls, his eyes glued on the radiometer instruments which told him how high he was and how fast his engines were going."

"Bill (Gordon) kept at the radio; in fact the two radio messages we got near midnight alone may have made our success possible. Of course we couldn't change our clothes or go to bed. We had to be prepared to plunge into the Atlantic at any moment of the night."

"I suppose we should have had interesting thoughts about our friends and homes of the past or our hopes for the future. But so great was our concentration on the task in hand that I doubt if any of our minds did more than run around in little circles that concentrated on weather and speed and the always present hope that when morning came we could at last see land."

BLESSED SILENCE
"In opening his talk, Stultz said: 'I think the finest thing about aviation is that the noise of the motor prevents a man from having to talk.'"

Stultz agreed with Commander Byrd that trimotored planes with propellers are the safest for ocean flights. "The toughest nut we had to crack," he said, "was the weather."

"Although they were in the air twenty hours it 'seemed more like two,' to Gordon. 'I like it,' he said, 'but I doubt whether anything approaching regular service will begin for five or ten years. In the meantime I expect to go on with commercial aviation because I think this is the biggest and most important business in the country today.'"

INDICTMENTS AGAINST SAUNDERS DISMISSED
ST. LOUIS, July 11. (AP)—Two indictments charging Clarence Saunders with using mails to defraud through sale of stock of the Piggly Wiggly Corporation were dismissed here today by Federal District Attorney Bruer.

EDITOR DECRIES
FARM HARDSHIPSConvention of Advertisers Hears Rural EconomicsAgricultural Expert Makes Explanatory AddressPresent Clamor for Luxuries, Not Necessities

DETROIT, July 11. (AP)—Tears of farmers for relief are of the crocodile variety, based more on a desire for added luxuries than for economic necessities, in the opinion of William Johnson, editor of Farm Life.

Addressing the convention of World Advertisers here, Johnson said that economic distress existed in cities where there is a marked absence of "croaking" for Federal aid.

"Farming may produce no millionaires," he said, "but it has no breadlines, no flop houses, no pitiable wretches living on charity and begging for aid."

"Agriculture has been greatly pictured as a scene of mud and hopelessness," he said, "but it is a modern, bright and brightened by power, machinery, radio, automobiles and other things."

"Probably the next generation will be hard up for the price of airplanes," he said.

PROGRESS FORMS DISQUIET. The discontent of the farmer, Johnson said, is the ferment of progress working in their minds. The farmer is out for incomes large enough to pay for the standard of living they have tasted in towns and cities since automobiles and hard roads took them there, he said.

F. R. Nichols, managing editor of the Chicago Farmer from Kansas, said he felt the farmers' sound financial status was pretty well indicated by the rise of International Harvester stock from $89 to $239 a share in eight years.

YOUNG GREEN NAMED. Charles C. Younggreen of Milwaukee was elected president of the International Advertising Association today. W. Frank McCullough of Chicago was elected secretary and H. R. Swartz of New York treasurer.

Twelve district governors also were ratified and the convention ratified the action last night of the board of club presidents in choosing Minneapolis, Minn., as the 1929 convention city.

Election of officers virtually completed the business of the convention, which ends tomorrow.

GOVERNORS LISTED. The district governors chosen are: Three-year terms, Walter A. Strong, Chicago; Francis E. Sloan, New York; Mrs. Ogden Reid, New York; and R. D. Stuart, Chicago. Two-year terms: R. P. Kelly, Chicago; Kerwin H. Fulton, New York; John C. Martin, New York; and John Benson, New York. To fill vacancies of the one-year term the following were named: J. H. Bragdon, New York; Don Francis, Los Angeles; O. C. Harn, Chicago; and S. R. McKelvey, Lincoln, Neb.

Walter W. Murdoch, Detroit, was elected president of the Association of Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers. A. J. Finerman, New York, was chosen first vice-president; O. S. Wenzel, Louisville, Ky., second vice-president; James McGovern, Albany, N. Y., treasurer; and E. F. Emmett, Indianapolis, secretary. Charles W. Max, St. Louis, was re-elected to the national commission of the association.

The classified managers endorsed the draft of a new code of ethics and the plan to amend the code to prohibit a dealer in property from concealing in any form of advertisement that he is a dealer in such property.

Departmental meetings of professional men.

FIGHTING DOGS
CAUSE WRECK

Canines in Back-Seat Argument Send Car in Ditch and Injure Four Persons

MISSOULA (Mont.) July 11. (Exclusive)—Two dogs, fighting in the back seat of a car, caused an auto accident here a few days ago, in which four people were badly hurt. The party, Washington tourists, were near Missoula on the Ravalli road when the canine riot broke out. A. H. Rivard, driving the car, went off the road, while trying to stop the dog fight. Those hurt: A. H. Rivard, Yakima, Wash.; his wife, Mrs. Cecile Russell, Yakima, and Frank Williams. The Rivards and Mrs. Russell were cut and bruised, Williams suffered a broken collar bone.

PATRONAGE QUIZ
SUFFERS DELAY

Half of Talesmen Fail to Appear at Biloxi

Mrs. Willebrandt Aiding Republican Inquiry

Hearing at Atlanta Brought to Conclusion

BILLOXI (Miss.) July 11. (AP)—Organization of a Federal grand jury here today to investigate Republican methods of distributing Federal patronage was delayed until tomorrow when seventeen of the thirty-six talesmen subpoenaed failed to appear.

Judge R. H. Holmes, Yazoo City, after hearing court in session nearly an hour, said the absent talesmen each would be fined $100 unless they established good alibis.

Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant United States Attorney-General, was here with a staff of assistants to assist the grand jury. Upward of 200 postmasters from over the State have been summoned to appear.

THAW LOCATES LOEWENSTEIN!

Harry Dines With Missing Belgian Midas, He Tells Friends in Paris

PARIS, July 11. (Exclusive)—Harry Thaw took a final fling at Paris last night preparatory to his departure today on the Ile De France, dining with Capt. Alfred Loewenstein, sensational Belgian banker.

At least, that is Harry's story as he confided to intimates as the man-about-town—1908 version—boarded the boat train today with his male nurse. He refused to listen to arguments that Capt. Loewenstein probably is not dining out since he disappeared from his plane in mid-channel.

"That's a lot of nonsense," said Thaw. "Capt. Loewenstein is a great friend of mine and is not dead at all. The whole story is very amusing, as he told me last night at dinner."

NEW ORLEANS

Business Men Enter Protest Before Council

Heavy Protection "Payoff" Asserted in Vogue

Police Head Says It's First He's Heard About It

NEW ORLEANS, July 11. (AP)—Antipathy of New Orleans business men as represented by the Association of Commerce toward gambling reached an unprecedented height today, when the organization's antigambling committee appeared before a special commission of City Council. They charged that gambling houses and book-makers flourish here under the "protection of constituted authorities."

W. S. Bender, chairman of the antigambling committee, declared conditions in New Orleans have reached such a state that the city is a mecca for gangsters, narcotic peddlers and addicts, gamblers and other denizens of the underworld.

The association committee appeared before the Council commission after Gov. Long had refused to act on a petition to suppress gambling houses in adjoining parishes until the evil has been eliminated in New Orleans proper. The petition declared business is being affected vitally by the wage earners losing their money at the gambling tables.

Supporting the charges that gamblers are paying for protection, Leon Heymann, chairman of the retail merchants' bureau of the association, told the committee he is in possession of reliable information that one gambling establishment paid $2000 to members of the police department within a "short time" for protection.

Denial that gambling is being carried on under police protection was made by Superintendent of Police Healy.

"This is the first I have heard of the charges and I am going to investigate it," Healy stated.

TEHACHAPI LINE REVIVED

Western Pacific Threat to Enter Los Angeles May Force Santa Fe to Build Cut-off

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Early construction of a short line across the Tehachapi mountains by the Santa Fe is one development that may follow the announcement of the Western Pacific project to extend its lines south to Bakersfield.

This route through the Tejon Pass, as surveyed by the Santa Fe several years ago, will shorten the distance between Los Angeles and Bakersfield from 282 to 130 miles.

Railroad men are not blinded by the statement from the Western Pacific that the proposed line will only run as far as Bakersfield. In Los Angeles the extension plans are regarded as a direct step in the long rumored project to build between Los Angeles and San Francisco, and it is expected that the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe will naturally oppose this threat with every resource in their power.

The first defensive move is anticipated to come from the Santa Fe on the Tejon Pass line.

Creole Oil Bought by Standard

Union With New Jersey Company Creates Huge $100,000,000 Concern

NEW YORK, July 11. (AP)—Consolidation of the Venezuela properties of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Creole Petroleum Corporation has been completed, it was announced today, and the Creole Corporation has become a direct subsidiary of the Standard company.

The consolidation, consummated through acquisition by Standard Oil of 3,025,000 of the 4,000,000 shares of Creole Corporation stock, brings together properties with assets approximating $100,000,000.

The company will have, as a result of the merger, large manufacturing units at Jersey City, N. J.; Milwaukee, Chicago, Jeffersonville, Ind.; Kansas City, Kan.; Berkeley, Cal.; and Portland, Ore. Manufacturing operations are also carried on in many foreign cities.

Bond issues announced for Pacific Coast distribution today include first-mortgage bonds of the Transcontinental Oil Company, Pomona city school and city high school bonds and first-mortgage bonds of the La Mirada Mutual Water Company.

Gorell & Co., Stein Brothers & Boyce, Drake, Riley & Thomas, Ferris & Hardgrove, Murphy, Favre & Co., and Bradford, Kimball & Co. are offering a syndicate offering $12,000,000 first-mortgage, ten-year, 6 1/2 per cent gold bonds of the Transcontinental Oil Company, due 1937, at 100 and interest to yield 6 1/2 per cent. Bonds carry detachable stock purchase warrants.

American National Company and Anglo California Securities Company are offering $435,000 Pomona city school and city high school bonds, due 1937, at 100 and interest to yield 6 1/2 per cent.

William R. Staats Co. is offering $200,000 first-mortgage, 6 1/2 per cent gold bonds of the La Mirada Mutual Water Company, due 1943, at 100 and interest to yield 6 1/2 per cent.

Financing of the State of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, is announced by a syndicate comprised of White, Weld & Co. and the National City Company, which consists of $2,000,000 6 per cent sinking fund gold bonds. Proceeds of the issue are to apply to the refunding of internal and external debt.

London Daily Radio

BY ARTHUR W. KIDD

LONDON, July 11. (By Wire)—The rise in the Chicago bank rate produced a further weakness in sterling. It is believed that this represents a Federal Reserve bank measure to attract funds from New York to Chicago and to thus reduce brokers' loans.

The stubbornness of the brokers against the recent tight money, however, produces an impression that advances elsewhere may be necessary, and dismisses all expectations of an early reduction of the Bank of England's rate as it is believed that short borrowing in London by American banks had been substantial.

Oil-edged stocks, however, were steady today and the general market was quiet, with some dullness in Hydrocarbons and International Holdings pending tomorrow's settlement.

PLAN A FOOT TO COMBINE SOAP UNITS

Merger of Colgate With Palmolive-Peet Voted by Directing Boards

NEW YORK, July 11. (AP)—The directors of Palmolive-Peet Company and Colgate & Co. have agreed upon a plan of merging these two organizations if stockholders approve. This merger will be effective as of July 1, 1928. The name of the new company is to be Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company.

Colgate & Co. was founded in 1806. The Palmolive-Peet Company was founded in 1864 and the Peet Brothers Company, which was merged with it on January 1, 1927, was founded in 1872. The new company unites three of the oldest and largest soap and perfume businesses of the United States.

The consolidation, consummated through acquisition by Standard Oil of 3,025,000 of the 4,000,000 shares of Creole Corporation stock, brings together properties with assets approximating $100,000,000.

The company will have, as a result of the merger, large manufacturing units at Jersey City, N. J.; Milwaukee, Chicago, Jeffersonville, Ind.; Kansas City, Kan.; Berkeley, Cal.; and Portland, Ore. Manufacturing operations are also carried on in many foreign cities.

NEW ISSUE

$12,000,000 TRANSCONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY First Mortgage Ten-Year 6 1/2% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

To be dated July 1, 1928 To mature July 1, 1938

Authorized $12,000,000. To be presently issued $12,000,000. Redeemable on any interest date as a whole or in part at the option of the Company after thirty days' notice, the redemption price to be at the holder's option, 110 and interest if unexpired coupon stock purchase warrants are surrendered with the bonds, or 100 and interest if such warrants are not so surrendered. Principal and interest payable in Chicago at the People's Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago or at the option of the holder in New York City at International Commerce Trust Company or in Baltimore, Maryland, at Union Trust Company of Maryland. Coupon Bonds negotiable as to principal, in denominations of $1,000 and $500. Interest payable January 1 and July 1, without deduction for any Federal Income Tax not in excess of 2%; but amount which the Corporation or Trustee may be required to withhold. Company agrees to refund, upon proper application, to holders of these bonds, any yield tax assessed and paid under the laws of any state of the United States, to the extent of five mills per year upon each dollar of principal thereof; and the Massachusetts State income tax not in excess of 6% per annum of the interest thereon.

THE PEOPLES TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK OF CHICAGO, CORPORATE TRUSTEE

The mortgage carries a sinking fund applicable to the retirement of bonds by lot. In respect of bonds called through the sinking fund the holder thereof has the option of surrendering the bonds with any unexpired stock purchase warrants thereto appertaining and receiving therefor 110 and accrued interest, or of retaining such warrants and receiving for the bonds par and accrued interest.

Each Bond will carry a detachable warrant which will entitle the holder to purchase 20 shares of Transcontinental Oil Company Common Stock for each $1,000 principal amount of Bonds held (and proportionately for $500 principal amount of Bonds held), upon the following terms:

On or before July 1, 1929	at $ 9.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1930	at 11.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1931	at 13.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1932	at 15.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1933	at 17.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1934	at 19.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1935	at 21.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1936	at 23.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1937	at 25.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before July 1, 1938	at 27.00 per share

The stock purchase warrant agreement will contain provisions designed to protect the warrant holders against dilution of their rights in case of the issuance of additional stock or stock purchase warrants, recapitalization, consolidation, merger or sale.

From the letter of Mr. F. B. Parrott, President of the Company, we summarize as follows:

Business Transcontinental Oil Company, incorporated in Delaware, started operations in August, 1919, and has developed a well-rounded organization engaged in all phases of the oil industry. For the first four months of the current year, the Company's gross crude oil production has averaged 12,003 barrels per day from 373 wells. In addition to this production, the Company has well in excess of 300,000 barrels per day in its Yates Pool properties (based on official field production test gauges) pinched in awaiting transportation facilities. The Company, directly or through subsidiary corporations, owns, or has an interest in leases within the United States aggregating 166,968 acres, and in addition, owns interests in large acreage in Mexico, Colombia, S. A., and Rumania. The Company's refineries, located at Bristow and Boynton, Oklahoma, and Fort Worth, Texas, have a combined daily capacity of 14,000 barrels and are served by 668 miles of pipeline lines owned by the Company or its subsidiaries. For the shipment of its products, the Company operates 1,130 tank cars. Cracking plants are in operation at all refineries and those at Boynton and Fort Worth are completely equipped for manufacture of all grades of lubricating oils and wax, as well as gasoline, kerosene and fuel oil. The Company has fourteen casinghead gasoline plants. Refined products are wholesaled and retailed through its own filling and bulk stations and numerous agencies throughout the country under the well known "Marathon" brand.

Purpose of Issue The proceeds from the sale of these bonds will be applied to the redemption and retirement of all of the Company's funded debt totalling $5,736,000, and to the reduction of the current indebtedness heretofore incurred in the development of the Company's properties, and to provide additional working capital.

Security These First Mortgage Bonds will, in the opinion of counsel, be secured by a direct First Mortgage Indenture (subject to certain purchase money obligations totalling only $21,302.54), specifically covering all of the Company's refineries, casinghead gasoline plants, fee owned filling and bulk stations and interests in developed leases, with the exception of the Company's Fort Worth Refinery and some unused property in Pennsylvania and New York of comparatively small value which the Company proposes to sell. The Indenture will contain a covenant that all undeveloped leases when developed must be specifically subjected to the lien of the Indenture. There will further be pledged under the Indenture the shares of stock owned by the Company in its subsidiary corporations with the exception of its shares of stock in United Producers Pipeline Company. The Company's physical properties have recently been appraised by independent engineers at more than $65,000,000.00. A value of $7,067,664.00 was assigned in the appraisal as the value of the Fort Worth Refinery and the stock of the United Producers Pipeline Company, which, for purposes of convenience in operation, are not subject to the lien of this mortgage. The consolidated balance sheet of the Company and subsidiary corporations as of March 31, 1928, adjusted to reflect the application of the proceeds of this financing to the reduction of current indebtedness, shows current assets of $6,648,692.12 and current liabilities of $1,385,161.98. On the basis of this balance sheet and giving effect to the appraisal of the fixed assets, net tangible assets, after deducting all liabilities except these Bonds, are in excess of $5,700 for each $1,000 Bond of this issue. Following this issue of Bonds the Company has outstanding $15,750,000.00 par value of 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock and 3,842,029 shares of no par Common Stock. The Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. At current prices the shares of Common and Preferred Stocks now outstanding have a market value of approximately $40,000,000.00.

Earnings The consolidated net earnings of the Company and subsidiary corporations, before interest, depreciation, charge off for dry holes and abandoned leases, etc., and giving effect to elimination of deferred credits, now transferable to Income and Surplus Accounts, as a result of the favorable decision of the Supreme Court of Texas, in the so-called Relinquishment Act cases, as certified by Messrs. Main & Company, certified public accountants, were as follows: For the year ended December 31, 1925, $2,916,082; for the year ended December 31, 1926, $4,197,331; for the year ended December 31, 1927, $1,608,767; for the 3 months ended March 31, 1928, $418,367, or at an average annual rate of $2,812,476 for the three and one-quarter years. These earnings are at the rate of 3.60 times interest requirements on this issue. Earnings for the same period before interest, but after all charges for depreciation, dry holes, abandoned leases, etc., amounted to $1,407,478 in 1925; $1,779,637 in 1926; $406,073 deficit in 1927; $165,864 profit for the first quarter of 1928, or an average of $906,740 per annum. The earnings as stated above reflect the income from only a very small portion of the production from the Company's Yates Pool properties, which, it has been conservatively estimated in the independent report to the bankers, will produce 100,000,000 barrels of oil. Additional pipeline facilities are now making possible the marketing of this oil in an increasing volume. A substantial profit can be realized in marketing this oil even at its current low price.

Sinking Fund The Trust Indenture securing these Bonds will provide that the Company shall in the years 1929 to 1937, both inclusive, pay to the Corporate Trustee, in semi-annual installments, a sum equal to 20% of the Company's earnings, on the basis of a consolidated statement of the Company and its subsidiary corporations, for the preceding calendar year, such payments to be applied by the Corporate Trustee to the redemption by lot of outstanding bonds. Such earnings as a basis for this sinking fund reserve are to be ascertained after deduction of all operating charges including the annual charge-off for dry holes, cancelled leases, interest, Federal income tax and all other taxes, but excluding depreciation, depletion and/or amortization of securities discount. In the three years ended December 31, 1927 the above Sinking Fund would have been as follows: 1925, $147,849; 1926, $437,463. No funds would have been available for Sinking Fund purposes in 1927, which was generally considered as an exceptionally poor year in the oil industry. This is an annual average of over $195,000, assuming interest charged on the entire new issue against earnings, but giving no effect to the use of the additional funds received from the present issue and no appreciable effect to production in the Yates Pool. This Sinking Fund, therefore, depends upon future realization of present favorable developments in the company, which we believe will result in substantial sums being available in the future for the retirement of this issue.

The Company agrees to make application to list these Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange

These Bonds are offered when, as and if issued and applied to as and subject to the approval of counsel, Messrs. Main and Ward for the Bankers and Mr. J. Charles Adams for the Company. Books and accounts audited by Main & Company, Certified Public Accountants. Attested by Mr. Wm. E. Warren, Dallas, Texas.

Transcontinental Oil Company 7% Notes due April 1, 1930 with stock purchase warrants attached will be accepted in payment for these bonds at 105 and accrued interest; without stock purchase warrants attached the 7% Notes will be accepted at 101 and accrued interest.

the Belvoir sand, and is making a fine oil, testing 27 deg. gravity. The well is one of the inside line wells.

Completion of the Bixby No. 21 leaves Marland only one string of tools working at Seal Beach, this being the Bixby No. 15, which is doing maintenance work. Marland has reduced its activity at Seal Beach to the point where it is simply meeting lease requirements.

Shell Gets Well

The Shell Company yesterday brought in its Bixby No. 3 in the deep sand at Signal Hill, making an initial yield of about 1100 barrels a day. There is a possibility that this rate of production will increase when the well clears up in the next few days. The cut is now about 17 per cent drilling mud and water, the gravity being 28 deg. The production is estimated at about 2,000,000 cubic feet a day.

Suspend Test

The Richmond Oil Company is suspending its test of the Augustine No. 1 well in the outskirts of the Los Angeles-Signal Hill, according to field reports. The crew was pulling tubing yesterday, after a test lasting several days, which indicated that the well apparently did not have a water shut-off.

Fish Extracted

The General Petroleum Corporation has succeeded in extracting the tools from its widest well in the Muswell Rock district, nine miles west of Ventura, and about three miles west of the Seal Beach field. The job held up progress for several days and allowed the Wellbore Oil Company, which, up to that time had been struggling along at about the same depth, to gain several hundred feet of hole. It is understood that the Wellbore well is down about 2000 feet.

Honolulu Rigs Up

The Honolulu Consolidated Oil Company has completed the derrick for its new well in the Muswell Rock district, three miles west of Seal Beach, and is moving in machinery and drilling equipment. The well is scheduled to be spudded in early next week.

Official Report

The State of California is behind its 1927 drilling record by exactly 210 wells, according to the figures of the oil and gas supervisor of the State Mining Bureau, which shows a total of new wells begun in this State to date to be 530, against a figure of 740 started in the same period in 1927.

Plan New Well

The U. S. Oil and Royalties Company expects to have a new well under way on its Linden-avenue lease in the Signal Hill field soon, according to official reports. It is understood that the well is to be put down under a drilling agreement with a syndicate headed by N. E. Whitaker.

Geis Wet Well

The Union Oil Company probably will have to re-enter its Long Beach Community No. 18 well in the deep sand at Signal Hill, according to unofficial reports from the field. The well has been making a pumping test, but showed only a little oil, and a good deal of salt water, it is said. Bottom is at about 6425 feet.

Girl Accused of Luring Prosperous Victims Into Hands of Crooked Gamblers

MALE FRIENDS ALSO DETAINED

Singer Said to be "Come-on" for Card Games

Companions Charged With Several Hold-ups

Another Suspect Held in San Francisco

Charged by police with being the "come-on" girl for a group of men who, among other activities, were engaged in luring prosperous men by means of various crooked gambling devices, Miss Buddie Burke, 21 years of age, was lodged in the City Jail yesterday.

Following the Burke girl's arrest, two men giving the names of James Lammagan, 25, clerk, and James Monroe, 24, salesman, were taken into custody at their apartment at 1448 North Alvarado street, and booked on suspicion of robbery charges.

THIRD HELD IN NORTH
According to Detective-Lieutenants Robinson and Gerhart of the police robbery detail, Lammagan and Monroe with R. P. Darlington, alias Larry Craig, now under arrest in San Francisco on a murder charge, are responsible for a number of recent hold-ups here as well as being the principals in fleeing the victims sent to them by Miss Burke.

According to the police, the local arrests culminated an investigation commenced two weeks ago following the robbery report of Earl R. Wilson, business man of 5649 Camarillo avenue. Wilson and his place of business were robbed on June 26, last, the robbers taking $400 in cash from the till and a $2500 diamond ring from Wilson. According to his report to the police, Wilson recognized the hold-up men, two of whom were engaged in removing the contents of the till and the third holding employees at bay when Wilson entered the establishment, as men he had met through the Burke girl.

FORMER CAFE SINGER
The young woman, who gave her address as El Cortez Hotel, 5649 Santa Monica boulevard, was booked on the charge of suspicion of grand theft by trick and device. She is said by police to have been a singer at the Fern Room Cafe in Hollywood and to have taken advantage of her acquaintance with prosperous guests of the cafe to invite them to an apartment party, where her "boy friends" by means of marked cards and loaded dice did the rest.

According to the police, three guns were found in the apartment of Lammagan and Monroe.

NEW TWENTY-SIXTH CHURCH RECOGNIZED
The Twenty-sixth Church of Christ, Scientist, has been recognized by the Christian Science board of directors as a branch of the Mother Church in Boston. The church now is conducting services at 460 North Western avenue.

ROAD CAMPS WIN PRAISE FOR SHERIFF

Grand Jurors Commend Traeger After Inspection of Prisoner System

Members of the Los Angeles county grand jury yesterday commended Sheriff Traeger for his methods of rehabilitating misdemeanor prisoners in county road camps.

A letter was written following an inspection of the five camps maintained by the Sheriff by grand jurors whose duty requires them to make a personal inspection of all jails and road camps in Los Angeles county each year.

"We wish to congratulate you upon your vision and clear understanding of human nature which obviously has been the motivating force influencing the creation and development of this system for rebuilding manhood," the letter stated.

The letter was signed by Thomas F. Cooke, foreman of the grand jury, and Charles R. Rowett, secretary.

ROUND TABLE CALLED

The regular summer round-table meeting of the Sales Managers' Association of this city will be at noon next Tuesday at the Alexandria Hotel. The subject for discussion will be "Do We Plan the Work of Our Salesmen or do We Permit Them to Follow Their Own Judgment or Suggestions?"

BANDIT GRABS GEM FORTUNE

Importer Robbed in Office of $100,000 Collection

San Franciscan Held-up in Jewelers' Building

Daring Outlaw Makes Escape Into Crowded Street

In one of the most daring daylight robberies for several months, a youthful bandit yesterday held up

Jacob Perl, a wealthy gem importer from San Francisco, in the heart of the business district and escaped with $100,000 worth of precious stones, according to Perl's report to police.

Perl was able to give authorities a thorough description of the bandit and detectives under Capt. Slaton immediately started a search for the man they believe responsible.

THREE NABS GEMS
According to Perl's report to police, he called yesterday morning at the offices of Ambrecht Brothers, a jewelry concern at 415 Jewelers' Building, Eighth and Hill streets. He found no one in the office, he said.

Turning to leave, Perl told police, he was accosted by a well-dressed young man who threatened him with an automatic pistol, snatched a brown leather brief case containing a collection of emeralds, rubies and sapphires, from his hand and fled.

Perl pursued the thief but the latter made his escape in the crowd when he reached the street.

DESCRIPTS BANDIT
The San Franciscan said he has been staying at the Palace Hotel in Long Beach and came to Los Angeles yesterday to sell some of his gems. He had brought them from Europe, he said. None of the precious stones was insured, he reported.

Perl described the thief as an American of about 25 years of age, about 5ft. 7in. tall and weighing about 140 pounds. He was dressed in a light brown suit, with a light felt hat and tan shoes.

LEGIONNAIRES TO MEET
American Legion members, and all other ex-service men of Districts 17, 18, 19, and 20 are invited to attend a gathering at the Wilmington Bowl tonight. A parade will form at Lakme and Anaheim streets at 7:30 p.m. and will march through the business district to the Bowl, where a business session is to be held. Following the business session of the program four "round boxing bouts are to be offered.

SIGNALS APPROVED
The Board of Police Commissioners has approved of the installation of automatic traffic signals at Hollywood Way and Cahuenga avenue, Los Angeles and Plaza and Marchessault streets.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO MEET
Members of the City Employees' Benevolent and Protective Association will meet Saturday at 8 p.m. at Knights of Pythias Hall, 230 South Spring street. Speakers are listed on the program for the evening in addition to a business session.

Two loving cups donated by Marco man of the United Jewish Appeal, and Adolph Sieroty, vice-chairman, will be awarded the evening of the frolic, one to the organization selling the greatest number of tickets and the other to the organization selling the greatest number in proportion to its membership. The entire club will be open to the guests.

HARBOR PILOT GETS OFFICIAL PRAISES
Capt. A. Jorgenson, harbor department pilot at San Pedro, was commended by the Board of Harbor Commissioners in a resolution passed yesterday for his efforts to give assistance to the passengers and crew of the motor sailer from the battleship West Virginia which was accidentally rammed by the Standard Oil Company tanker District of Columbia on July 3, when one sailor was killed and another drowned. The board also commended Marine Superintendent Macquiddy, for his efforts in rescuing those hurled into the water by the crash.

FILIPINO FEDERATION PICKS HEADQUARTERS
Choice of the Alexandria as headquarters for the second national convention of the Filipino Federation of America the week of December 23, next, which is expected to bring some 10,000 former residents of the islands to Los Angeles, was announced yesterday by President Hilario C. Monzon. The public sessions of the convention are to be held either in Trinity or Philharmonic Auditorium. Various branches of the federation will meet here the week of October 28, when plans for the national assembly will be completed.

NEW CLEW MAY CLEAR UP MURDER

Mystery Woman Witness in Glab Case Proffers Important Evidence

Said to have given new important information that may lead to the arrest of the person who murdered John I. Glab, a wealthy retired Chicago druggist, a mystery woman witness was questioned by police yesterday, it was learned last night.

While the officers who questioned the woman are keeping her identity secret, they admit that the information she imparted is regarded by them as pertinent.

"It is the best clew we have had yet," declared Captain of Detectives Dean, in charge of the homicide squad, after talking to the witness. Detective Lieutenants James and Jones were assigned to the case to run down every angle of the woman's statement.

The woman, who said as he was entering his automobile he was Van Nuys on the night of June 18, reported they had seen a woman run from the scene. Later Mrs. Glab and her niece, Miss Ethyl Kaeser of Oklahoma City, were arrested but were released after several days.

Request of the Playground and Recreation Commission for exclusive control of the anchorage area in front of that portion of Cabrillo Beach inside the San Pedro breakwater was denied by the Harbor Commission yesterday on recommendation of Traffic Manager Starr with approval of General Manager Cole.

It was said by Starr that a restriction anchorage would interfere with navigation of vessels in the outer harbor and the establishment of any future yacht anchorage at that point.

Secretary Lamb, of the playground department, said yesterday that the idea in asking for control of the anchorage was because complaint had been made by bathers that shallow-draft boats with small or outboard motors had run in close to shore among the bathers, scaring them out of the water in fear they would get slashed by propeller blades.

CLEWS SOUGHT IN GIRL MURDER

Identity of Victim Thrown on Road Still in Doubt

Officers Send Inquiries to Surrounding Region

Bullet from Back Seat of Auto Took Her Life

Inquiries were sent to Ventura and San Diego counties last night by Capt. Bright, head of the Sheriff's homicide investigation detail, in an effort to identify the 17-year-old Japanese girl who was shot to death on a lonely road near Downey and thrown from an automobile Tuesday night.

This step was taken after all efforts to identify the girl as a resident of Los Angeles county had failed. According to Capt. Bright, the girl probably was brought to Los Angeles county from some city in San Diego or Ventura or Santa Barbara county and slain.

Investigation by Deputy Sheriff Allen and Weybright revealed that the girl was shot in the back of the head at midnight Tuesday near the farm of W. E. Crawford, two miles southeast of Downey on Washburn Crossing Road. Crawford told the officers that he heard two shots fired at about that time.

Several minutes later the body was found by Lester E. Thien, a truck driver of El Monte. He reported the discovery to Crawford, who notified the Sheriff's office.

The girl apparently had been educated in American schools, for she was dressed in typical fapper garb, the officers' report stated. She wore a white summer dress with red polka dots, rolled flesh-colored stockings and had a gold chain clasped about her right ankle. She also wore a white gold ring set with an oblong onyx stone in the center of which is a small chipped diamond.

SHOT FROM REAR SEAT
The location of the bullet wound convinced Deputy Sheriff that the girl was riding in the front seat of the automobile and was shot by someone riding in the rear seat. The body then was thrown from the car while it was traveling at high speed, clues indicated, for it had slid for several feet after it struck the gravel at the roadside.

After the preliminary investigation, the body was taken to the Miller Undertaking Parlor at Downey.

FROLIC PLANS FIXED
Representatives of Many Jewish Groups Lay Out Program

Plans for the midsummer night's frolic to be staged by the Jewish young people's organizations the 25th inst. at the Breakers Club, Santa Monica, in behalf of the United Jewish Appeal to raise $200,000 for national Jewish institutions, were formulated at a rally last night at the Hamburger home at which more than fifty organizations were represented.

The loving cups donated by Marco man of the United Jewish Appeal, and Adolph Sieroty, vice-chairman, will be awarded the evening of the frolic, one to the organization selling the greatest number of tickets and the other to the organization selling the greatest number in proportion to its membership. The entire club will be open to the guests.

It was said by Starr that a restriction anchorage would interfere with navigation of vessels in the outer harbor and the establishment of any future yacht anchorage at that point.

Secretary Lamb, of the playground department, said yesterday that the idea in asking for control of the anchorage was because complaint had been made by bathers that shallow-draft boats with small or outboard motors had run in close to shore among the bathers, scaring them out of the water in fear they would get slashed by propeller blades.

Request of the Playground and Recreation Commission for exclusive control of the anchorage area in front of that portion of Cabrillo Beach inside the San Pedro breakwater was denied by the Harbor Commission yesterday on recommendation of Traffic Manager Starr with approval of General Manager Cole.

LIQUOR FINES AID COUNTY

Treasury Has Profit of $88,000 for Year Due to 653 Convictions Under Prohibition Laws

Seven hundred and eighteen arrests were made and 653 convictions were obtained, the report states. Of this number only fifty-two were women.

Salaries of deputy sheriffs engaged in the prohibition enforcement work, and court procedure cost the county less than $30,000 during the year, according to Capt. Benton's estimate, leaving a net profit of approximately $88,000 for the county treasury.

The report indicated that the liquor-law violators were most active during the months of July and September, the fines for these months averaging $18,000 each.

SIXTY TOURISTS DUE IN ONE PARTY TODAY

They came by way of the Grand Canyon. Another party of seventeen tourists in charge of J. Kimber Grimm will arrive on the California Limited this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Princeton University geology class will arrive the 18th inst. The class is in charge of Prof. Richard M. Field.

ARIZONA'S PLAN OUTING
Arizonans will stage a summer picnic rally all day the 18th inst. at Bixby Park, Long Beach. Gov. Hunt will be guest of honor and principal speaker. County registers will be opened all day.

Virginia Hurst, also known as "Lady Diana Bathurst," was sentenced to serve 180 days in jail by Municipal Judge Gibbs yesterday, following her conviction Tuesday on a petty theft charge. Judge Gibbs suspended all but thirty days of the sentence for a period of three years.

"Lady Diana" was convicted of giving Mrs. Helen Caverly, a dressmaker, a bad check for $15 in payment for a dress. Although not represented by an attorney at the trial, she appeared with one yesterday who, after sentence, filed a motion for a new trial, which will be heard by Judge Gibbs tomorrow, and notice of appeal, on which Judge Gibbs stand bond of $100.

Furthermore, the woman's habit of pulling the hair in the evening after meals, costing motorists more than $100,000, and ordering them to leave was reported.

Efforts to find the small coupe seen leaving the scene of the shooting a few days ago also proved fruitless. Capt. Bright, head of the homicide detail, however, has obtained clear that to the apprehension of the Officers believe that by way of the killer's automobile, possibly supply the license number.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The Associated Press is a corporation organized for the purpose of gathering news for its members. It is not a news agency, but a news gathering organization. It is not a news agency, but a news gathering organization. It is not a news agency, but a news gathering organization.

The Times aims at all times to be accurate in every published statement of fact. Readers who discover any important inaccuracy of statement will confer a favor by calling attention of the Editorial Department to the error.

No employee of the Times is permitted to accept any gratuity, in money or its equivalent, from any individual, group or organization having news or business relations with the Times. The public should clearly understand that it is unnecessary to pay anybody anything to get news into the Times and that any Times employee who accepts "gifts" or "kickbacks" is in violation of the policy of this newspaper and is thereby rendered subject to immediate discharge.

Bad laws, if they exist, should be repealed as soon as possible; still, while they continue in force, for the sake of example they should be religiously observed.

 The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. Prov. x:12.

CAN HE REPEAT?
 They all seem to agree that an honest job is the noblest work of man.

THE FLOWING BOWL
 When the Hollywood Bowl is filled with harmony it makes a grand old food.

LOOKING AHEAD
 Queen Marie is sponsoring cooking schools in Rumanian society. The maids and matrons that can't get into the movies may find cozy anchorage in the kitchen.

ONE WAY TO DO IT
 An article in a big financial journal asks how we shall guard the money we are sending abroad for investment. Well, we might try sending the United States marines along with it.

THE WILLING SACRIFICE
 A woman writer says that there are not men enough to go round. It isn't the fault of the men. Everybody knows that they are willing enough to go round. They stick it out as long as they can.

HOT DOG
 A jazz band in Fomeran played for thirty-three hours without stopping. There are Fomeranians who lead a dog's life and maybe these are they. It's a wonder that no one threw a bone—or a fit.

MADE IT UNANIMOUS
 When a Nebraska farmer's four sons married four sisters the old man went forth and clinched the family grip by marrying the mother of the girls. That is the kind of farm relief that counts.

THE GREAT CITIZEN
 Sweden, Japan and several other nations have been nominating our own Charles Evans Hughes for the bench in the world court of international justice. Our distinguished citizen has a reputation for judicial competence and impartiality that crosses all borders and barriers.

MANY VOTERS
 There are now considerably more than 2,000,000 registered voters in our well-known State and they are lining up for the August primaries. It takes a lot of money to print the ballots and explanatory literature to reach this vast army of citizens and so it is easy to understand that any primary campaign is a strain on the purse. Only a rich man can stand the full shock.

ONE-PRICE ROME
 Mussolini is having the time of his life in putting the merchandise game in Italy on a one-price basis. Rome has always been a great town for bargaining and jockeying. Nobody was expected to pay the first price the merchant asked for an article. A half hour of repartee and wrangling would usually precede any transfer. This represented a waste of much time in the course of a day and Fascism doesn't countenance anything like that. So the shops are now presumed to have one price. That price may be marked in plain figures and it has been placed low enough to head off a lot of bickering. But it is hard to break the Romans of a life-long habit.

QUEST OF BEAUTY
 Ethnologists and scientists with the Marshall Field Museum expedition in British Honduras have been making further important discoveries relating to the Mayan civilization, which was at its peak more than 2000 years ago. Embalming and mummifying processes so far revealed show that the Mayans used many of the beauty methods now in vogue. They used clays and unguents and they even made their dead more attractive by lifting or building up the face with certain earthy mixtures that removed the wrinkles and left the face smooth and plump. Why they did for the dead they probably did for the living, so that it is quite possible that the Mayan belles of a dozen centuries back had their "facials" as regularly as the matrons of today. Women began pretying themselves in the days when Eden was an exclusive park.

THE WESTERN PACIFIC MOVE
 Action of the Western Pacific Railroad toward extending its lines through the San Joaquin Valley as far as Bakersfield is an indication of the judgment of shrewd railroad men regarding the final outcome of the Los Angeles union-station controversy. The Western Pacific has for years desired to enter Southern California territory with Los Angeles as a terminal and the desire to keep it out on the part of the Santa Fe, the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific has been one of the chief motivating forces behind their fight against the Plaza terminal, which otherwise would be of great advantage to all three.

Behind the Western Pacific extension to Bakersfield, now projected, is apparently the belief that the Plaza station will be built here, thereby furnishing the road with the necessary entry facilities. The opposition to the union-station project by the three roads which now terminate in Los Angeles is a case of a competing railroad would be permitted to share their terminal facilities have a considerable element of absurdity, since the present terminal facilities are incapable of the necessary expansion.

At the Central Station, now shared by the Southern and Union Pacifics, the available trackage has already been outgrown, nor is there room at the Santa Fe terminals for another railroad. In the Plaza area there is not only room for all three roads, but for a couple of additional ones, plus the growth of years to come, and if that terminal was built the Western Pacific could no longer be denied entrance, nor could any other road that desired to enter. It is fairly obvious that Bakersfield is regarded by the Western Pacific as a convenient stepping stone into Los Angeles and that an extension here awaits only a favorable decision in the Plaza case. The business to be picked up in the San Joaquin Valley, already well supplied with railroad facilities, would hardly justify the Western Pacific's action were that the only end in view.

The Western Pacific taps a vast area not now easily accessible to Southern California, and the entrance would give a needed impetus to local industry, and cause expansion which would give employment to thousands. The mere possibility that the Western Pacific might be induced to come here would be sufficient justification for Los Angeles to exhaust every effort to bring about the Plaza station construction; the practical certainty that it will come, that it is, in fact, on its way, ought to put a stop to all sincere local opposition to the continuance of the fight by the city.

It will not, of course, end the opposition of the railroads themselves, but will rather intensify it.

The plain inference from the Western Pacific decision to build southward is that the city is in sight of victory and that the decision of the actions now pending in court—one by the city to require the Interstate Commerce Commission to make a final order for the building of the terminal, and the other an appeal of the city's decision to the Supreme Court—will finally settle the matter, and in favor of the city's contention.

GETTING OUT THE VOTE
 In a recent address at Washington, John Hays Hammond proposed the organization, in the 1000 larger cities of the country, of joint committees on active citizenship, charged with the duty of showing voters their duty of first informing themselves on the issues of the campaign, and then going to the polls and casting their ballots accordingly. Mr. Hammond is not the first to call attention to the peril to representative, democratic government that results from nonparticipation of its citizens in it, but he is one of the first to put forth a practical remedy. It is not enough, Mr. Hammond pointed out, to "get out the vote." A mere doubling of the number who go to the polls means nothing. To be of value, Mr. Hammond said truly, it is necessary that each vote cast be an informed and intelligent vote. Neither the education of voters who do not vote, nor the voting of voters who are not educated, is of any service to the public. In 1928, only about 33 per cent of the eligible electors exercised the privilege of suffrage, with the result that in all probability the officers chosen at that election were representative not of a majority but of a minority of the citizenship.

This condition cannot be cured by whoop-hurrah and mass meetings. Mr. Hammond's idea is that each of these city committees is to designate members to go before commercial, fraternal, agricultural and patriotic organizations, women's clubs and church societies of all creeds, and urge each to see that its members register and vote and that each organization, if possible, conduct open-forum discussions during the course of the campaign, with opportunity for all shades of opinion to be heard.

Following out Mr. Hammond's idea, the American Legion, National Grange, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs, National Fraternal Congress, National W.C.T.U., National Education Association, National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, American Bar Association and other organizations have pledged their aid and support. Special attention is to be given to the 7,000,000 high school and college graduates who will cast their first votes this year. The General Federation of Women's Clubs, it is understood, has undertaken the work of organizing the local committees.

It needs to be reiterated that there are two equally important branches of this work, and that neither can be neglected—informing the public and inducing it to cast a ballot. It also needs to be reiterated that it is work, in the final analysis, will involve a good deal of struggling to and fro in each election district, with few thanks and no reward save the consciousness of duty well done. Those appointed to spread the light from house to house, door to door, for their task, something of the consecration of the early missionaries.

Such organizations as Tammany Hall get such work done by paying for it, in one form or another, at the expense of the taxpayers. The unpaid workers of the committees to be organized on the

LEE SIDE O' LA

by Lee Shippey

FOR many years all the rest of the country has poked a little fun, more or less enviously, at the "real-estate" of Los Angeles. But the fact that the real estate men of the country, in convention the other day, elected Harry Culver their president is evidence of how sincere their admiration is, and how sincere the pleasures which have become almost as popular as Scotch whisky.

The fact is that Los Angeles real estate men have for many years set the pace of progress for all America. Away back in the early '80s they departed from old methods of business and began making things easy for the little man to own his home. The great excursions from Missouri River and Mississippi River points which followed the completion of the Santa Fe Railway to the Coast—when one-way rates dropped, for a few days, to the ridiculous price of $1—were met by such real estate "boomers" as never the excursionists had seen before—men who loaded them into wagons, took them on sightseeing trips, gave them good dinners, and then by hundreds landed one of them at a time on the advantage of this territory and offered payment plans easier than they had ever hoped for before.

Wise to Be Foolish
 That was the beginning of the era of new ideas in real estate development—and so, of course, it was starting to some of the staid and conservative. They wisely shook their heads and said there was too much hurrah about the whole thing, clinched their money tightly and returned to grub along in their old stamping grounds. But many thousands were foolish. They "bit" on the unproved California propositions—and they and their descendants have grown affluent in consequence.

Novel Ideas
 Southern California still leads the world in novel ideas, not for "skinning the public," but for making the public skin. Real estate developers don't want to have property thrown back on their hands. They want it held, improved as only a home owner can improve it, and so made an asset to all the rest of the tract. Thoroughly reliable and amply financed corporations and companies in Southern California will sell you lands on which they will guarantee you an income, in some cases. Some years ago

And Await Their Redeemers
 Leaside: "Pledges Kept in Burglar and Fireproof Vaults," reads a window sign on South Main street. They may not be as pretentious as some, but Main-street business men certainly do try to keep their pledges.—Seymour Selts.

Suggest L.O.U.s.
 Speaking of pledges, one of our friends in the Navy says it almost looks like rubbing it in to supply naval aviators with O.G.U. planes.

Need Looking Into. The preachers of the Bay District seem to be functioning. In every increase of population there is a normal per cent of fools. The general average is always maintained. And good citizenry must spend much of its power in suppressing the parasite of the pocket book and saving the foolish from themselves.

HONORS TO TAINÉ
 In Paris they are celebrating the centenary of Hippolyte Taine, philosopher, critic and historian. France has good cause to be proud of Taine. He was a man of great literary attainment. Like Hugo, he never permitted his pages to be tainted by eroticism, and yet he was not a man of narrow thought. Taine admitted that he owed an asset-part of his early education to his father, who was a strict disciplinarian. It was from him, too, that he imbibed many of his ideas of criticism. As a young man Taine was a very close student. He allowed himself but twenty minutes' play time and an hour's music after dinner. The rest of his waking hours were spent in work.

Known to American Readers chiefly by his keenly critical "History of English Literature," Taine was widely read in this country forty years ago, and his book is considered a classic by students of English. His comparisons of French and English viewpoints in prose, fiction and poetry afford very interesting reading.

Vivid and colorful, showing rare appreciation of nature, nearly every book he wrote may be regarded as a brilliant performance. He loved to write satirical notes on society, yet was no pessimist. There always has existed a Taine cult in Paris, and his work, with its marked distinction of style, has many admirers in Europe and America, though his name has been pointed out in late years as being dogmatized to a degree no longer regarded as permissible in lay literature.

FISH FEATHERS
 If the gamblers were to work as hard at something constructive as they do at new schemes to reduce the public purse, they might qualify as our most eminent and wealthy citizens.

The latest device to anchor their palaces of the Long Beach coast and transport lambs to their shambles out in mid-ocean is to the point. However, the master minds chose the wrong coast. Long Beach has always been noted for its morality and sobriety. The criminal class has never felt greatly at home there. It might have expected a speedy finish for its scheme.

Julian stock carried considerable gamble, but at least it had something to offer on the surface. But going out into the ocean willingly to be fleeced and help pay for the big ship and the bright lights is beyond the imagination of the ordinary. The dice are proverbially loaded. Some seem to enjoy being plucked just for the feeling of having their fish feathers plucked.

Since the government has made it difficult to go to the Long Beach episode is but an attempt to transport Aunt Jane to the front door of Los Angeles. Possibly there will always be patrons of games of chance. The gambling concessions at Venice and other beaches are more rat holes than

LETTERS TO The Times

(Name and address of writer must accompany all letters for this column. Letters of a personal nature or involving controversial religious questions are not acceptable.)

"My Brother's Keeper"
 LOS ANGELES, July 10.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Personal liberty is probably the most abused term of the day. If applied in its entirety, in time it would spell ruin to every human being on the face of the earth. Am I my brother's keeper? may well be considered at this time, as it affects each human with whom we may come in contact.

Because a man wants to smoke opium, should he be allowed to do so? Because a man wants to beat himself and degrade his wife and children, should he be allowed to do so? Because the men of India want to throw their children to the crocodiles, should they be allowed to do so? Why, our police, our army, our custodians of the law, why? Why should we have any restrictions placed over any of us to keep us within due bounds? Why not let every man live as he wants to live, why restrict him to anything which may be uplifting and beneficial to himself, his children, his family or his neighbor, why?

The Golden Rule, which has been advocated by every great teacher since the world began, "Do unto others as you would that others should do unto you," is the great panacea for the world today. Men and women of America, let's try it out. We have tried most everything under the face of the sky, now let's try this, each of us and see how it works. We, as a family, shall cast our votes for Herbert Hoover, the man of the hour, the man who knows of the suffering of humans, has helped them and uplifted them.

GEORGE A. BALDWIN.

Sunday-School Lesson
 LOS ANGELES, July 9.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I write and I value highly the expression of the weekly Sunday-school lesson by William T. Ellis in the Sunday edition of your splendid paper, which I have been taking for more than fifteen years. True it often costs me some time to find it, because its location is shifted about. Yesterday I was unable to discover its hiding place. Perhaps the manuscript of it is called to reach your table in time.

It is too much to ask that you include it in your announcements under the heading "In the Greater Sunday Times Today." Every day I am grateful for the index you give to the several departments of the paper. Whenever I have occasion to glance at some other daily journal of this city, I am at a loss to find what I want; but you do not leave me without a guide.

JAMES D. KATON.

Monitor Questioned
 LOS ANGELES, July 9.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I fear the usually careful Christian Science Monitor has fallen into error in its discussion of the candidacy of Alfred Emanuel Smith, under Richard Croker and Charles F. Murphy.

What Tammany was in those days the revelations of the Lexow and Massey investigations laid bare. Smith was a boy in short trousers at the time of Lexow, and the Massey investigation, in 1906, cast no aspersions upon Murphy. Murphy, in 1899, was an anti-Crocker district leader and a respectable saloon keeper. His first act as boss of Tammany Hall was to drive out of the organization all district leaders who were not "in the pocket."

Perhaps it is just as well, too. If women had been able to use that "Great reformatory power" which was to utterly remodel the nation, we might have begged things disastrously worse, or, to bear those ills we have than fly to others that we know not of. My matriarchal faith in my father's party is a little shaken, but I have landed on a safe and sound ground.

eloquent reformatory ladies are apt to leave me cold. I must have a reformer, I would just as soon it was male as that I can feel sarcastic about him with a clear conscience.

Even the League of Women Voters advises its members to join the respective male parties and work with them. It hasn't any complete faith itself in that "great reformatory power" which was to utterly remodel the nation. It obviously recognizes that we shall not get any reforms that seasoned male minds do not approve.

By and by, maybe in 2000 A.D. we shall have cultivated some seasoned female minds. But until then we can safely go right on blaming the men. The women would much rather blame the men.

What Is Gambling?
 OCEAN PARK, July 9.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I had always been told that Los Angeles catered to the tourists. Is there any harm in giving these tourists a little fun? Have any of these protestors ever been in a real tourist town such as Venice, Ocean Park and Santa Monica claim to be? In case they haven't, let them send for some data on a real tourist town, and they will find that it is not the thing to object to a person spending a dime on a little game of chance. I can cite you cases where hundreds of people have lost $2500 in one hour on the stock market in the rankest kind of gamble.

OCEAN PARK CITIZEN.

When a fellow-townman writes a book, it is customary for a number of other fellow-townsmen to buy copies. Many authors count on fellow club members, schoolmates or similar interested groups to buy a copy and push it along. But it remained for an American banker to become popular through group buying in a different way, when Paul

PEN POINT

Some husbands have no idea how to be peevish. They are too busy to find time to be peevish.

Doubtless Mr. Hettin, even if he is a phant.

About all you get out of a funeral you can't see.

How strange that the people should call their calamities "acts of God."

The good don't die young just because they are young.

Redundancy: The use of many words, as, "He is a politician."

It's too late to feel virtuous but we hope the two who took aboard got a better butler.

A "political boss" leads the same way a mule's nose leads to go, the nose is at the front.

Americanism: A substitute for dumbness and becomes a man if forced through.

The latest statistics show that 88 per cent of the valentines now have good jobs waiting for them who dropped out at seventh grade.

The reason the trout like President's flies is because they think they are a big is a native suspicion.

There is a little safety in conservatism in all of us when Henry Mencken looks at his coat at Kansas City is revealed suspender.

It's hard to get an unobscured view. To the man looking for a drink, all the world is looking for a drink.

Each generation produces at least one great "liberal" whose life work consists in saying: "Darn religion."

Correct this sentence: "an only child," said the mother, "but she doesn't resemble a child."

Many a man takes things granted without first to be sure that they belong to him.

The only time most of us are after we are too dead to know it.

Very few of the big jobs are given by men who put at risk because a button is missing.

Before you are treated as one of the family it is just as well to find out something about the family.

THE FREQUENT TRAGEDY What are the thoughts of a man who scours away from home, through fog and storm, finds his motor won't start? He's staked his life to it, he hopes, a car, a name, and now the car must be paid; is he still a man, or afraid? Alas, in the uncharted waste his motor hums its humming hate; it chugs its splutters and it dies; the no longer skims the air; falls, all helpless to the ground, which is a universal grave. The great machine the airman is falling like a bolt of lightning, hope of rescue anywhere is empty, like the air; some hope a thousand miles away, some hope a crowd of people pray, and crowds of people strain their gaze to mark the coming through and there are pagodas and there are heroes when he comes to greet the hero when he comes, but he is falling to the ground, a deep, transparent pool, find a deep, transparent pool, find a deep, transparent pool.

What are his thoughts when he faces a face with death in its eyes? What are his thoughts when he faces a face with death in its eyes?

DISASTER IN MINE IS THE PUNCH

Stock Thrill Idea and Sympathetic Love Theme Blend in "Toilers"

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT
A mine disaster on the screen is almost a novelty. I don't recall exactly how long it is since I have seen one—but anyway whoever is desirous of renewing a good old stock thrill of the movies will find it displayed in "The Toilers" at the United Artists Theater. The final scenes of this picture have to do with a fire that breaks out in a coal drift, and with the rescue of entombed mine workers.

As pictures go, "The Toilers," despite certain old-fashioned aspects of plot, is rather interesting and human. The staging of the mining episodes is effective. There are a few moments when the shots of the fire, the barricading of the drifts, and the flight of the miners from the onslaught of flames seem jumbled, but this is fairly redeemed by the spectacle as a whole.

Featured players are Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Jobyna Ralston.
The love story that they enact has sympathetic appeal. There is some rather good comedy, for which Harvey Clark and Wade Boteler are responsible. Clark being the more shining light. Reginald Barker's reaction appears commendable. Fault might be found with a few scenes that are overacted.

It might be seriously questioned whether "The Toilers" is the sort of film to please the clientele of the United Artists Theater, even though within its sphere it has merit. Young Fairbanks and particularly Miss Ralston give a good account of themselves in their portrayals. The scenes where the miners are waiting for relief and huffing for want of air are especially well photographed.

In addition to the feature, a Charley Chase comedy affords considerable merriment, while Hugo Riesen-feld's orchestra and Grace Le Beau soprano, are on the musical program.

Stage Success
Basis of Film

"The Racket" has been booked as the next attraction at the Metropolitan, following the current run of "Telling the World." It will open Saturday.

The picture is adapted from an elaborate scale by Howard Hughes of Caddo Productions, and is being released by Paramount. Hughes and Caddo, it will be remembered, were responsible for "Two Arabian Knights," their only other motion picture. Harry Behn, who wrote the screen plays of "The Big Parade" and "Hell's Angels," also did the scenario for "The Racket," from the play by Bartlett Cormack.

The cast seen in support of Meighan might be termed "all-star," with Marie Prevost, Louis Wolheim, Sam De Grasse, Burr McIntosh,
George Stone, Jon Darrow, "Skeets" Gallagher and Lee Moran all enacting prominent roles.

The new stage presentation at the Met will be Public's Revue, "Pagoda Land," with the California Humming Birds, Adler, Well and Herman. Jules Buffalo remains as guest conductor and master of ceremonies.

Arthur Lubin With Universal Since Arthur Lubin finds that he in pictures.

He is already opens its engagement at Warner Theater in Hollywood

Monday afternoon, Leo F. Forbstein will make his first appearance in the pit as the leader of the theater orchestra. Forbstein is one of the most popular of all the Los led the orchestras of three of the largest motion-picture theaters here. While, of course, Vitaphone

CONDUCTOR DELIGHTS HOLLYWOOD

"Prince" Albert Finds an Immediate Friendliness
Which He Reciprocates

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES
Albert Coates, the Russian conductor with the British name and accent, now conducting at the Hollywood Bowl, is rapidly winning friends among the "fans" and it is expected that he will soon be addressed as "Prince" Albert, rather than the formal Mr. Coates by which he has been introduced. Besides a universal friendliness and wit he is distinguished for his internationalism, for his intimate companionship with Bernard Shaw and for conducting without a baton.

During a few moments' chat yesterday he revealed that one of his heart's hopes is to have his newest opera, written on the theme of the honorable Samuel Pepys, published and produced, in connection with this opera "Prince" Albert told an interesting anecdote. The composer rather diffidently played the uncompleted work for Bernard Shaw
and was chagrined at his utter silence throughout the performance.
At the finish Mr. Shaw began in this wise: "On page forty-three in the second line the transition is too sudden. On page 112 the voices are not clear," and so the comments
continued definite and concise throughout the 300 pages of manuscript which the author remembered with a photographic correctness.
Lavish praise concluded the hearing. Bernard Shaw was once one of the noted music critics of Britain.

Mr. Coates declares the name of Herbert Hoover is treated with almost the same respect as that of the deity in Russia today. His service to Russia in the days of famine will never be forgotten there, he said.
The Coates program at the Hollywood Bowl tonight will have Vaughn Williams' "London Symphony" as its most important work.
The symphony described in Williams' symphony are very familiar to this conductor for he has conducted the London Symphony Orchestra for many seasons and seasons and mood of the English orchestral records have been made by him.

Loew's is Host
to John Gilbert

"The Cossacks," which has set a record at Loew's State Theater, will be given what the producers call a grand finish tonight, its last night,
with the appearance in person of

Gilbert, who has not appeared personally for many months, consented to break his rule on this occasion. The theater will undoubtedly be filled to capacity by fans
eager to get a glimpse of the screen star.

The program opens tomorrow.
The week will be called Joy Week
three main offerings on the program. Karl Dane and George K.
Arthur will co-star in "Detectives,"
a mystery comedy of the doings of hick sleuths. Fanchon and Marco will offer the O'Neill Sisters' Kiddie Revue on the stage, and Our Gang
in "Crazy House" will be an added
comedy attraction.

Colony Honors
Mexican Actor

(Illustration on Picture Page)
Andres Chavez, one of Mexico's best dramatic actors who with his company of Mexican players has been touring the southern part of the United States, will be honored
by the local Mexican colony tonight at the old Grand Theater on Main street.

Senior Chavez is to be congratulated for his untiring efforts in behalf of creating and introducing the modern Mexican plays for the first time in this country, having done it with great success in all
the cities which he has visited en route. This is Senior Chavez's second visit to Los Angeles.

Devotees of Spanish-speaking theatricals may recall that he came here early in 1927 as leading man for Mme. Virginia Fabrega, the Bernard of Mexico, when she played a long engagement at the Capitol Theater.

heart's hopes is to have his newest opera, written on the theme of the honorable Samuel Pepys, published

this opera "Prince" Albert told an interesting anecdote. The composer rather diffidently played the uncompleted work for Bernard Shaw
and was chagrined at his utter silence throughout the performance.
At the finish Mr. Shaw began in this wise: "On page forty-three in the second line the transition is too
sudden. On page 112 the voices are not clear," and so the comments
continued definite and concise
throughout the 300 pages of manu-

ing. Bernard Shaw was once one of the noted music critics of Britain.

Loew's is Host
to John Gilbert

"The Cossacks," which has set a record at Loew's State Theater, will be given what the producers call a
grand finish tonight, its last night,
with the appearance in person of

Gilbert, who has not appeared
personally for many months, consented to break his rule on this occasion. The theater will undoubtedly be filled to capacity by fans
eager to get a glimpse of the screen star.

The program opens tomorrow.
The week will be called Joy Week
because of the jubilant nature of the three main offerings on the program. Karl Dane and George K.
Arthur will co-star in "Detectives,"
a mystery comedy of the doings of hick sleuths. Fanchon and Marco
will offer the O'Neill Sisters' Kiddie Revue on the stage, and Our Gang
in "Crazy House" will be an added
comedy attraction.

Colony Honors
Mexican Actor

Andres Chavez, one of Mexico's best dramatic actors who with his company of Mexican players has been touring the southern part of the United States, will be honored
by the local Mexican colony tonight
at the old Grand Theater on Main

behalf of creating and introducing
the modern Mexican plays for the first time in this country, having done it with great success in all
the cities which he has visited en

accent, now conducting at the Hollywood Bowl, is rapidly winning friends among the "fans" and it is expected that he will soon be ad-

ATTACK PROBE HITS OFFICER

Desk Sergeant Suspended by Ontario Commission

Said to Have Seen Assault
Without Doing Duty

Mystery Shrouds Beating of Boy Near Stage Depot

ONTARIO, July 11.—Mystery which has covered a brutal attack made by two assailants on the night of the 2nd inst. upon the person of Clarence Lewman, local youth, was partially penetrated today when the Police Commission suspended from duty O. G. Maginn, desk sergeant of the police department, pending an investigation into his asserted activities in connection with the affair.

Maginn, it is charged, was present at the time Lewman was set upon and beaten, and made no effort to stop the assault. Maginn's suspension followed a written investigation, hampered for a time by the absence of the victim, who did not return here until yesterday.

Following the attack, Lewman boarded a stage for Modesto, where he recovered from his injuries. The youth told the commission that he was accompanied to the stage depot by a girl. As he neared the station about 9 p.m., a machine drove up and two youths leaped out and attacked him. Maginn is said to have been driving the automobile.

Patrolman G. H. Brunfield has been appointed desk sergeant by Chief of Police Arthur Askey.

Whole Fishing Crew Arrested

AVAILON, (Catalina Island) July 11.—The fishing boat Welfare of San Pedro, its captain and crew of nine men, were taken into custody today by Deputy Game Warden J. B. Bates of Los Angeles county when the boat was found loaded down with twenty tons of tuna taken with round-haul nets in violation of the law. The arrest of Capt. Louis Urtich and his crew, the first in a campaign to stop the illegal breaking of the round-haul net law. The Welfare was brought into Avalon Bay, where its crew was held on board under quarantine, while Capt. Urtich was lodged in the Courthouse jail. All will be brought into court for arraignment tomorrow.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN FOUND DEAD IN HOME

VENTURA, July 11.—Another of the old guard passed last night when the body of J. Jancke, veteran of the Civil War, was found in his cabin at La Graciosa by A. Wiley, a milk man. Jancke lived by himself in a seaside cottage, alone except for the occasional visit of an old friend from Bunkle. Yesterday, when he was missed, Wiley forced the door and there he lay with his shoes partly unlaced. Coroner Heaton removed the body to his undertaking parlors where it is being held pending orders from Jancke's friend in Burbank. It is thought that the body will be interred in the soldiers' cemetery at Sewille.

THURMAN CONSIDERED FOR COACHING POST

PASADENA, July 11.—John C. Thurman, former all-American tackle of the University of Pennsylvania football team, is being considered for the coaching post of Pasadena High School and Junior College football coach, George H. Meredith, assistant superintendent of schools, revealed today. For the past two years Thurman has served as line coach at the University of California at Los Angeles. Harold (Hobbs) Adams, football captain in 1923, recently turned down the Pasadena offer because the salary is lower than he is receiving at Monrovia High School.

SERVICES HELD FOR TOM R. WILLIAMS

PASADENA, July 11.—Funeral services for Tom R. Williams, New York business man who died Sunday night in a local hospital following an operation for appendicitis, were held today at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale. Williams was married less than three months ago to Miss Marion Williams, 1927 women's tennis champion of California. He had been living with his bride at the Hotel Huntington, following their return from a honeymoon spent in New York City.

EXHIBIT WILL OPEN MORE

Huntington Library and Art Gallery Visiting Days
Increased to Accommodate Public

PASADENA, July 11.—More visitors will be admitted to the Huntington Library and Art Gallery, beginning October 2, when the number of visiting days will be increased to include Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays and, as heretofore, the first and third Sundays of each month. Max Farrand, director of research at the institution, announced today.

The library will be closed during September to allow for a general cleaning and renovating of the art treasures. Farrand stated that 12,169 persons were admitted to the library during the month of June. Since opening of the public exhibitions on January 27, last, more than 50,000 visitors have obtained tickets admitting them to the galleries and grounds.

Those wishing to visit the library between now and August 31 may

NEW COMMANDANT AT MARINE BASE

Brig-Gen. Dion Williams
AT POST IN SAN DIEGO

Aids to National Marine Chief Transferred From Washington to Pacific

SAN DIEGO, July 11.—Brig-Gen. Dion Williams today assumed command of the marine base here, succeeding Maj. G. A. Johnson, who has been acting commandant since the transfer recently of Col. Charles Lyman. Williams has been here since Monday, having arrived from Washington, where he was on duty as assistant to Gen. John A. Lejeune, commandant, United States Marine Corps.

Williams declared that development of the new airport here is of paramount importance to the growth of military aviation and that the Marine Corps will be directly as a result of having the airport near the marine base, he said.

In discussing plans for maintenance of the base here, Williams declared that the work of planting trees and shrubbery around the grounds with the view to making the reservation into a park will be continued. In time, he said, the base probably will have an administration building, an auditorium and additional officers' quarters.

Born in Ohio in 1869, Gen. Williams was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1892 when he was 23. He served as second lieutenant in the Marine Corps. He served with Admiral Dewey at Manila Bay in 1898, and married under his leadership were the first to invade Spanish soil in the Spanish-American War. He has been on expeditionary force in the Philippines, Panama, Cuba, China and other parts of the globe.

NEWPORT CHAMBER INVITED TO MEET

NEWPORT BEACH, July 11.—All members of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce will be invited to attend the meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county, scheduled to take place here Thursday, the 26th inst., it was decided at a meeting of directors yesterday.

The directors also approved an appropriation for entertainment at this meeting. Delegates of chambers and other member organizations throughout the county will be invited. There will be boat rides on the bay, a dinner, probably at the Yacht Club, with entertainment and a business meeting, and dancing at the Rendezvous and Pavilion ballrooms until midnight.

DIPLOMAS IN REALTY

GLENDORA, July 11.—Members of the realty board who have completed the course of study prescribed by the California Real Estate Association and the University of Southern California will receive their diplomas at a banquet to be held Sunday night, when Frank C. Coleridge of U.S.C. will present the certificates, and when Superior Judge Charles C. Montgomery of Los Angeles will deliver the principal address.

POLICE ERECT ADDITION

VAN NUYS, July 11.—Work has started on the erection of a second story on the machine shop of the Van Nuys police station, to be used as sleeping quarters for jail trustees. The new story will accommodate twelve persons. Present sleeping quarters of the prisoners are in the basement of the station.

GRAND JURY TO STUDY CHARGES

Further Action Ordered in Asserted Bribe Offer

Members of Discharged Panel
May be Called to Stand

Lawyer Said to be Involved in Jury-Fixing Probe

SANTA BARBARA, July 11.—Superior Judge S. F. Crow today issued a call for the county grand jury to meet at 1 p.m. Monday to investigate asserted attempts to bribe jurors hearing the $500,000 suit of Mrs. Emily Loomis Angle against the San Marcos Building owners, heirs of the Hawley estate, for the death of her husband, Dr. James C. Angle, in the collapse of the building in the earthquake of June, 1933.

The investigation was precipitated yesterday, when Superior Judge Frank Collier of Los Angeles, sitting in extra session, ordered a subpoena for the discharge of W. F. Marquette, private detective. Marquette charged that E. L. Ireland, a member of the jury, approached him and told him that he could secure favorable verdicts from four other members of the jury for $500 and the call for the grand jury to meet at 1 p.m. Monday.

Marquette, instead, committed his own attorney, Emile V. Vanover, and the latter took him before Judge Collier and Sheriff James Ross, who heard his story. Ireland also was summoned and Marquette repeated his story in the former's presence. It was then that Judge Collier ordered the mistrial, the second of the suit, and the sworn testimony was turned over to District Attorney Clarence C. Ward. After reviewing the testimony this afternoon, Ward requested Judge Crow to issue the call for the grand jury to meet at 1 p.m. Monday.

Four and perhaps five members of the jury will be called to testify before the grand jury in addition to Marquette. More than three lawyers, who was asserted to have had a part in the attempted bribery, Ward intimated.

San Gabriel Fish Dying

GLENDORA, July 11.—That the West Fork of the San Gabriel River in San Gabriel Canyon is fast dying due to the shallowness of the stream, was reported today to C. L. Savage, district fish and game commissioner, by Ranger C. L. Klein.

The same condition in the Big Dalton Canyon, according to District Ranger Arthur Shay, who states that the stream is fast dying. Brown are moving the fish from the stream and placing them in the North Fork of the San Gabriel Canyon.

The trout in the West Fork stream will have to be packed to the north fork by burro, as there is no road in the virgin forest. More than 3000 trout already have been taken from Big Dalton Canyon, and it is expected that the stream holds that many more. ## HUGE HEN THEFT PUZZLES POLICE

SEFULVIDA, July 11.—Valley police are searching for a man posing as a chicken buyer who is said to have disappeared soon after 640 chickens were found missing from the ranch of Louis Rosen on Roscoe street. Rosen told the police that the buyer tried to obtain the chickens but was refused. Later the man was almost cleaned of his stock.

Neighbors said the buyer was seen to leave the ranch with a truck loaded with hens. Police are puzzled by the disappearance of the man and are informed that the man was missing, and demanded that she pay for it. She refused, and he stated that he would sue her for the money. The police were called but the man made his sudden departure.

MUSICIANS ADDED TO REDLANDS FACULTY

REDLANDS, July 11.—Barton Bachman, concert pianist, and William H. Price of British musical circles, have been added to the faculty of the University of Redlands. The new faculty members will be added to the faculty of the University of Redlands. The new faculty members will be added to the faculty of the University of Redlands.

RIVERSIDE DRIVE PAVING PLANNED

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, July 11.—Until 10 a.m. on the 26th inst., bids will be received by the Board of Public Works for the improvement of that part of Riverside Drive from Vineland avenue westward to Woodman avenue in the Van Nuys district, a distance of several miles. Various other streets in this improvement district also are to be paved. Specifications call for concrete.

FOREST GUARDIANS SEE FIRE ON SCREEN

CLAREMONT, July 11.—One hundred members of the Angeles Forest Protective Association assembled here last night for a monthly meeting which was prefaced by a dinner. E. S. Gilman, president of the association, talked on fire prevention and made a report of activities of the State forestry board, of which he is a member.

Robert L. Carson, news-reel photographer, showed three reels picturing a forest fire with rangers and fire fighters in action. The next meeting will be held at La Crescenta on August 14.

CAN ANYONE USE NICE BEACON?

GLENDORA, July 11.—Somebody appears to have mislaid an aerial beacon, weighing approximately 30,000 pounds. Postmaster E. F. Haines has been advised by Southern Pacific officials here that the beacon is lying at his disposal in the railroad yards, and that the only address on it is "A. C. Rice, care of Postmaster, Glendale."

Haines declares that he has had no official intimation that the government plans to erect a guiding light for aviators in Glendale, and he emphatically asserts that there is no room in the postoffice in which to store the consignment. In the meantime he is hoping that Rice will turn up and take his beacon away with him.

RECALL HINT IN ZONE ROW

Glendale Landowners Hold Indignation Meeting and Will Protest to Council Today

GLENDORA, July 11.—For the second time within a fortnight, talk of recall directed against members of the City Council was heard today, although it had not reached the stage of circulating petitions. Indignant home-owners of the highly restricted Northridge section of the city, adjacent to the Palmdale ranch, soon to be subdivided, are the source of the latest threat.

Owners of the tract, which extends from a line just west of Concord street to Grandview avenue and from Glenwood road to San Fernando road, have proposed zoning it for industrial, commercial and residential use. The tract is bounded on three sides by residential areas, and the proposed zoning is being protested by the residents of the tract.

Property owners held an indignation meeting last night at which the proposal was denounced in no uncertain terms as a plan to destroy the value of a large residential district. It was freely predicted that if the Council fails to heed the protests of the taxpayers, they will purchase ground in another residential area for a city materials yard.

A recall move against Mayor MacBain and two members of the Council was dropped a week ago, when the Council, responding to strong protests, stopped proceedings for purchase of ground in another residential area for a city materials yard. Mayor MacBain, who is a candidate for County Supervisor in the Fifth District, at that time laid the recall move to his opponents in the coming primary.

Two YOUTHS TRACED TO TEXAS CITY

Turned Over to Police and Released for Lack of Information

POMONA, July 11.—Missing since May 16, when they disappeared after a meeting of the Juvenile Yacht Club, Lewis and Nelson Winslow, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. Winslow, were positively identified by police in New Braunfels, Tex., last Saturday, but were released for lack of sufficient information, according to a wire received here today by Constable A. B. Chambers from W. Buttle of that city.

Buttle wired that he picked up the two boys about a mile from the Texas city, where he turned them over to the police. When released, the boys stated that they had been on their way to Temple, Tex., as Chambers wired authorities at the latter city to pick up the boys and return them to their parents.

Various theories have been advanced since the disappearance of the boys, one of them being that the boys had been safe hiding in the numerous caves of the Santa Ana Canyon near Corona. After days and nights of fruitless search, police became convinced that they had met with foul play, and were unable to unearth any clues upon which to base an investigation.

Today's information seems the most authentic of numerous tips yet received, and Constable Chambers is bending every effort toward apprehending the lads. Mrs. Winslow, mother of the boys, has been reported in serious condition since the time of their disappearance.

LAST RITES HELD FOR POLICEMAN

GARDENA, July 11.—Funeral services at the Methodist Church here were held this afternoon for Wolsey Weyant, 29-year-old officer of Los Angeles Police Department, who was drowned in the collision at Santa Barbara on June 30.

Services at Inglewood Cemetery were in charge of the Redondo branch of the Elks. Pallbearers, following the funeral, were Sergeant Frank Gardner, F. A. Riggs, George Henderson, Detective-Lieutenant Frank Speck and Officers Dalton Patton and W. J. Lee.

Motor officers of Seventh-seventh street division, who formed the guard of honor, were Samuel Ooidy, Sgt. W. O. G. and Sgt. W. J. Lee. Anderson, Weyant had been a member of the Los Angeles Police Department for several years, as assigned to the Gardena district and resided at 1810 Menlo avenue, here.

SCHOOL HEAD QUITS

Anna Man Appointed After Lennox Superintendent Resigns

LENNOX, July 11.—C. L. Edgerton, superintendent of city schools here, submitted his resignation today and James C. Haines of Azusa has been appointed to fill his place. During Edgerton's administration the school enrollment has increased from less than 300 pupils to more than 1800. His future plans have not been announced.

SMOKERS ARRESTED

VENTURA, July 11.—William Bowie, forest guard announced today that during the first week of July eight arrests for smoking were made on the Matilda Canyon road inside the Santa Barbara National Forest. Smoking is prohibited inside the forest except at camps or other established places of habitation and the regulation is being strictly enforced, says Bowie.

HERE'S WAY TO BEAT THE COPS

Asserted Reckless Driver and Companion in Machine Look
So Much Alike That Witnesses Cannot Pick Out
Driver so Court Orders Acquittal

GLENDORA, July 11.—Witnesses for the prosecution became so uncertain and confused in their attempts to identify the driver of the car in which John W. Considine, former theatrical magnate, was riding with his friend John R. van of San Diego, that Considine was found not guilty of charges of reckless driving preferred by Earl C. Dick of this city.

Considine, who resides at Monrovia, was riding with Ryan in the wheel, and as the Considine car passed that driven by Dick the former slowed down, according to Dick's

PASADENA TO VOTE ON DAM

Bond Election on $8,000,000
Planned for November

Undaunted by Opposition of Other Municipalities

Need for San Gabriel Water Supply is Explained

PASADENA, July 11.—Despite the declarations of other cities in the San Gabriel Valley that they will "fight to the last ditch" to prevent this city from constructing a $8,000,000 water storage dam at the Pine Canyon site in upper San Gabriel Canyon, Pasadena officials are planning to ask the electors to vote $8,000,000 in bonds for the project at the general election in November. It was learned today. The State Division of Water Rights yesterday granted Pasadena's application to divert 150,000 acre-feet of water in any five-year period from the San Gabriel River.

Samuel B. Morris, superintendent of the municipal water department, declared that this city will have an adequate water supply for consumption by three times its present population if the Pine Canyon dam is built.

"Pasadena's supply," Morris said, "will be obtained from that flow which previously has wasted into the sea. All percolating water will be required to percolate as in the past, so that none of the valley cities will be damaged by Pasadena's diversion from the San Gabriel River. As soon as we receive the permit in full, we shall proceed to complete our designs and estimates with every expectation of submitting the project to the people for their approval of bonds to finance the project."

"Owing to the overdrawn local supplies," it is imperative that we proceed with this project as rapidly as possible. A stipulation required of the flood control district by the United States Forest Service requires that the district remove its railroad tracks above Pasadena's house lines, or above the water line of the flood control district's 'forks' reservoir."

Bull Attacks Corona Rancher

CORONA, July 11.—Nicholas Cortes, wealthy rancher, living north-west of this city, was attacked by a bull on the McCarthy ranch, which adjoins his own, and as a result of the combat he is in Corona Hospital with severe lacerations and possible internal injuries.

Cortes was leading fertilizer in the cattle corral when he was knocked to the ground by the bull and the animal followed up the attack by jumping on the unfortunate man, who was fast losing consciousness when his faint cries for help attracted the attention of other men on the ranch. They grabbed pitchforks and drove the bull away.

The animal, a valuable registered Holstein, had broken out of the small corral where he had been confined.

DOG SAVES FAMILY CAR BUT LOSES LIFE

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 11.—A barking dog at the house of a next-door neighbor awakened F. E. Marsh, 2804 East Fifty-eighth street, during the early hours of the morning. He looked out of the window and noticed two men moving away from his automobile, which was parked in front of his house, apparently frightened by the dog.

Later in the morning when the family arose they found that the machine had been tampered with, a tire was flat and the engine was dead. The dog was lying dead upon the lawn, it having been poisoned or otherwise killed. It is thought the two men were instrumental in the dog's death.

SCHOOL TO RISE AT SUMMERLAND

SUMMERLAND, July 11.—Walter L. Willis, Santa Barbara contractor, was awarded the contract for building Summerland's new school, at a meeting of the school board. His bid was $12,865. There were six other bids, ranging up to $16,117.

Construction of the new building, designed by Edwards, Plunkett & Co., will start immediately. It is hoped to have the schoolhouse completed shortly after the fall term of school starts. The new building will be of frame and stucco construction, Spanish type architecture, with a tile roof.

PLAN BOND ISSUE TO ACQUIRE PARKS

PACIFICA, July 11.—No protests having been filed against the project, it is learned here today that way has been cleared in the Los Angeles City Council for the calling of a municipal bond election on August 2, next, for the proposed purchase of Stonehurst and Panapac parks. The bond issue, it is understood, is to be for $80,000 for the purchase price and improvements. Both park sites are in this vicinity.

EQUIPMENT STUDIED FOR GLENDORA PARK

GLENDORA, July 11.—First action toward installing playground equipment in the city park was taken last night by the City Council, who appointed a committee to investigate the kind and cost of adequate equipment for the park.

On the committee are Mans Hopper, city park commissioner, and Mayor E. L. Comstock, who will report at the next meeting of the Council on the 24th inst.

TAXPAYER WILL BE INFURIATED

San Diego Property-Hold to Be Worth $5,000,000 Will Go Untaxed Six Months

SAN DIEGO, July 11.—Property here valued at about $5,000,000 will go untaxed in the first half of 1935 as a result of the city and county tax office consolidation, Mayor Harry Clark said today.

Further, taxpayers will gain by several hundred thousand dollars because of the reduced assessed valuation in the county, he added.

About $500,000 will be saved by owners of unsecured personal property such as furniture, automobiles and securities. Clark estimated, basing this figure on the collections for the first half of this year.

Incidentally, the county assessed valuation of about $5,000,000 of city property will have to be cut $4,000,000 which the city already has collected on unsecured personal property, making a net taxable valuation for city purposes of about $1,000,000.

BIG STILL CAPTURED NEAR PIRU

Two Pretty Young Girls and Two Men Arrested at Scene of Raid

VENTURA, July 11.—One of the largest still plants ever taken by the Sheriff's office in this county was being brought to the Courthouse in several trucks today, following the seizure of the equipment and the arrest of O. H. Olsen, Jeanette Olsen, Helen Hayes and Helen Hayes, on the old Southern Pacific oil lease in Eureka Canyon, near Piru yesterday.

One hundred and fifty gallons of finished liquor, a complete hydrometer for measuring, dozens of yards of heavy copper coils and pipes, several big copper coolers through which the liquid was cleared by gravel, two tanks holding 2000 barrels of mash, a barrel of molasses, dozens of new five-gallon cans, several sacks of sugar and numerous sugar sacks, as well as two copper stills with capacity of 1200 gallons each, are looked in the back of several trucks with additional trucks en route from the scene of the raid bringing more paraphernalia.

The two women, both young, attractive and well dressed, and the two men were questioned today by Dep. Atty. Burton Rogers and Sheriff's men. They were released when they knew nothing of the still.

The containers which held the mash and distilled liquor were all cleverly lined with oil compartments, so that when the officers first investigated they put their hands into the oily sludge. The entire plant was dismantled and the equipment was taken to the Sheriff's office, where it was being stored.

The entire plant was dismantled and the equipment was taken to the Sheriff's office, where it was being stored.

TWO ARE FINED FOR SWIM IN RESERVOIR

CHATEAUX, July 11.—H. Partelle and Jose Chavez, on a charge of swimming in the Chateaux city reservoir, entered pleas of guilty before Judge Decker of the old Los Angeles County Court and were fined $50 or ten days in jail. This was in addition to a thirty-day sentence which the defendants had received in the same court for swimming in one of the city's reservoirs.

It is estimated that the plant was worth $15,000 as it stood when the officers arrived. At least $5000 worth of equipment is under the Sheriff's lock now.

CHAMBER PICKS BANKER

GLENDORA, July 11.—George E. Farmer, cashier of the American National Bank here, was elected treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce here to succeed Ross Walker, who has resigned as treasurer and manager of the First Exchange State Bank in Los Angeles. Farmer will fill the position as treasurer but will not have a place on the board which will be chosen by the directors at an early date.

Feasibility of Canyon Airport Discussed

AZUSA, July 11.—The proposed new $50,000 city sewer system of the Chamber of Commerce here, which is being developed by the city, will be sent to the City Council, secretary, announced today.

The city is forced to take immediate action concerning sewage for better sanitary conditions, city officials declare. Several systems are being considered and members of the Council City Planning Commission and others are planning to make an investigation of the Currie system, which is being used in a number of cities throughout the San Gabriel Valley. An independent system is necessary as the city cannot afford the expenditure of connecting with the metropolitan sewer, the executives said.

That the City Council will be asked for financial assistance toward placing a chamber of commerce

HUMANE PLEAKindness to Animals Will be Urged as Part of Lesson
in Sunday Schools

A resolution asking that all Sunday-school students be instructed to be kind to every living thing is to be presented to the World Sunday-school convention now in session here according to announcement yesterday by Mrs. Warren McIntyre, president of the City Humane Treatment to Animals Commission.

The desire is to incorporate kindness to animals in the regular lessons prepared and distributed by the convention each year.

The resolution was prepared by Rev. Thomas Grice, pastor of the First Methodist Church of South Pasadena, in collaboration with Mrs. Frances H. Weldon, of the Humane Treatment to Animals Commission.

The resolution was presented to the convention by Mrs. McIntyre, who said that the commission had been working for some time to have the lesson on kindness to animals included in the regular lessons.

The resolution was adopted by a large majority of the delegates, and Mrs. McIntyre said that she was glad to see that the commission's efforts were being recognized.

The resolution was also adopted by the delegates from the various Sunday-schools in the city, and Mrs. McIntyre said that she was glad to see that the commission's efforts were being recognized.

specialize on Shiekh Mery B. Dewar of Cairo, Egypt. But I expect that the end makes all the difference, for he proved to be a most discreet gentleman, speaking excellent English. "Shiek," he told us privately, means an elder of the church. Both he and the Japanese delegate, Dr. Y. Goro Chiba, wore the usual American male attire in fact, foreign costume was conspicuous by its absence. A few little Japanese ladies furnished the only sartorial interest. Nevertheless, gay summer attire in the style of fashion is evidently quite common with lay Sunday-school delegates.

BRAZILIANS PROMISE
Senor Jose Luis P. Braga of Brazil, promised the delegates a deep knowledge of the "city in the world"—when the convention meets in Rio de Janeiro.

Theron Gibson of Toronto, who spoke for all North America, won some smiles by explaining that that country known as the United States is in the center, as well as a greater country, Canada, in the north.

The great Shrine Auditorium was crowded from floor to ceiling. Mrs. Grace Maben, who directed the singing, was in her element.

The registry and information departments were having a hectic time. No one was allowed in without a badge, and badges had been left behind on "my other dress" and "in my other coat pocket," with ensuing consternation.

The delegates of the various countries were determined to be boys who stood on the burning deck, before they would let anyone in without credentials. It was a badge, and badge had been left behind on "my other dress" and "in my other coat pocket," with ensuing consternation.

HUNDREDS OF INQUIRIES
Hundreds of people were anxiously inquiring for missionary friends and trying to locate lost relatives.

All the delegates of this spiritual League of Nations seem to be able to speak and understand English. (Even when so many of the speakers failed to talk into the microphone—a sin several committed.)

The best-looking man present was easily our own Dr. Rufus von Klenzsmann, the Methodist by the way. He was a member of the Pennsylvania delegation to the Sunday-school convention now in session in Los Angeles, which was on a sight-seeing trip in Riverside. One of the cars carrying the delegates collided with another and Miss Helkes received a broken pelvic bone. Her condition will require long confinement in a hospital. It is said.

PEOPLE VOICES AFFAIR
After drawing this parallel to the present age, Dr. Poole voiced an appeal for a world-wide fellowship in which he said:

"We face today an impasse, or rather a dead end. It is a world of nations, groups, social, political and economic—confronting one another in undisguised hostility. There are all the elements here of a world disaster. If human life is to endure at all in any sense in which it is worth living these groups have somehow got to be transcended and made to take their place in a larger unity. A new fellowship must be achieved, built on something more imperishable than the ties of mere self-interest and fear which hold the existing group of loyalties together."

PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATE INJURED IN AUTO CRASH
Miss Juanita Helkes of Huntington, Pa., is at the California Lutheran Hospital seriously injured as the result of an automobile accident in Riverside yesterday. Miss Helkes is a member of the Pennsylvania delegation to the Sunday-school convention now in session in Los Angeles, which was on a sight-seeing trip in Riverside. One of the cars carrying the delegates collided with another and Miss Helkes received a broken pelvic bone. Her condition will require long confinement in a hospital. It is said.

Actress Aids Sister in Court
Georgia Hale, motion-picture actress, at one time leading lady for Charles Chaplin, was in court yesterday.

Miss Hale appeared before Superior Judge Ambrose as a witness for her sister, Mrs. Eugene Budworth, who was seeking a divorce from William Budworth. Mrs. Budworth testified that she had been married to Budworth, a salesman, in Chicago in September, and their separation occurred in January, 1923. Desertion was charged.

Miss Hale corroborated the testimony of her sister. Judge Ambrose granted the decree.

Following these ceremonies the Mayor of the largest city in the world gave a forty-five-minute talk that skirted closely the edge of politics, but tactfully did not fall in.

CAFE-BLAST SUSPECT PLEADS NOT GUILTY
Michael Jevah Tooske, charged with arson and burning insured property as a result of the explosion and fire that destroyed the Russian Eagle Cafe in Hollywood June 16th, last, yesterday pleaded not guilty to the charges when arraigned before Superior Judge Edmonds. Tooske's trial was set for the 24th inst., in Superior Judge Doran's court.

SEVERAL SECTION WILL CONFER
Members of the subdivision division of the Los Angeles Realty Board will hold their monthly dinner meeting at the Elsie Cafe on Flower street this evening. Matters of interest to subdividers will be brought up for discussion. George H. Coffin, Jr., chairman of the board's Federal income tax committee, will explain the present subdivision trust situation and Federal taxation. W. L. Pollard, chairman of the City Planning Commission, will discuss the proposed new city zoning ordinance. Charles R. Chalk will discuss tax rates. Paul Dietrich will talk on the master plan act, while President Brooks will report on the annual convention held in Louisville.

BLANDER SUIT LOST
R. D. Sheffer, real estate operator, yesterday lost his $50,000 slander suit against Mrs. Nina H. Miller when a jury in Judge Beebe's court brought in a verdict in favor of Mrs. Miller. Sheffer had charged Mrs. Miller with impugning his reputation for honesty.

OBJECTIONS TO BE HEARD
Protests against the establishment of a seaback line on La Brea avenue from Sunset Boulevard to Hollywood Boulevard will be heard by the City Council this morning.

TRAFFIC GUIDES ORDERED
The installation of automatic traffic signals at Wilshire Boulevard and Alexandria avenue has been approved by the Board of Building and Safety Commissioners.

EAST TODAYTwo Commanderies From Here Will Attend Detroit
Triennial ConventionLocal commanderies of the Knights Templar will leave by train at 10 a. m. today for the national grand encampment, which opens at Detroit next Monday.

The national encampment is a triennial affair and this year is expected to attract 250,000 visitors to Detroit. One of the features will be the national drill competition in which commanderies from all over the country will enter teams. The winning team will be awarded a $250 gold watch for each member of the team. A team comprises thirty-five members.

The national encampment will be represented by two commanderies, Los Angeles, No. 9, commanded by Dr. W. F. Holman, and Golden West, No. 43, commanded by J. M. Sullivan. Monrovia commandery, with Maj. E. A. Evans in charge, also will be present. Among prominent knights from California who will attend will be Perry Weidner, who holds the next highest national office; Col. Andrew J. Copp, Jr., Grand Commander of the Los Angeles commandery; and Arthur B. Critch, Grand Junior Warden.

Financier Plans Trip to Study Yucatan
William P. Maurer, Los Angeles financier and philanthropist, who for years has been interested in the early civilization of North America, is calling together the personnel for an expedition to Yucatan, Mexico, it was announced yesterday.

The purpose of this research work is to determine the feasibility of a rapid transit system and the feasibility of real business courtesy in the downtown shops and on our downtown streets.

COMPLAINT DATE SET
The City Council on August 17 will hear protests against the proposed improvement of streets in the Devonshire and Fryton-avenue improvement district in the San Fernando Valley.

Divorce Seeker Tells of Two Cruelty Events
Mrs. Mary E. Woodruff seeking a divorce from Charles Woodruff in Superior Judge Blake's court yesterday declared there are some cruelties on the part of her husband she would overlook, but when he became violent about his prowess and associations with other women she believed it was time to ask for a divorce.

One of her complaints was that Woodruff broke her finger while endeavoring to remove her engagement ring which, she said, he wanted to give to another woman. The decree was granted.

Spaghetti Tale Wins Divorce
Mrs. Rose D'Amato thought it cruelty when, after making a nice bowl of spaghetti for her husband, Joseph D'Amato, he grew angry over something that was said while he was eating it and threw the entire portion into her face.

Such was her statement yesterday when seeking a divorce from D'Amato in Superior Judge McComb's court.

"It was good spaghetti, cooked the way he likes it," Mrs. D'Amato declared. "Then to think, he threw it in my face," she added. The divorce was granted.

TRANSPORTATION CLUB PICKS CHIEFS
The annual meeting of the Los Angeles Transportation Club was held yesterday noon in the club rooms at the Builders' Exchange Building. T. A. Lorett, traffic manager of Lewellyn Iron Works, was elected president. Dr. W. E. McCormick, secretary of Carmichael Traffic Corporation, secretary-treasurer.

Those elected to the board of directors are: J. P. Curry, traffic manager California Walnut Groves' Association; Fred Simpson, traffic manager Broadway Department Store; Pay R. Smalley, assistant manager Hotel Alexandria; H. R. Bradshaw, traffic manager Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; R. T. Pierson, manager Los Angeles Motor Freight Association; H. R. Dor, traffic manager Norton Lilly & Co.; T. J. Day, freight traffic manager Pacific Electric Railway; W. E. McCormick, general agent, Great Northern Railway; and P. V. Prissell, district freight agent of the Southern Pacific Railway.

ANALYZEDDowntown Business Men Study Survey Made of Decentralization

A report on decentralization published by the Downtown Business Men's Association and circulated among its membership today, is of timely interest to merchants and property owners in the central business district.

In analyzing the business situation in the downtown area it is pointed out that, while the increase in retail business in Los Angeles has been better than 5 per cent a year for the past two years, the business of the principal center has not gained in proportion. In answering the question: "where did this increased retail buying go?" the report shows that a powerful decentralization movement has set in and the outlying districts are seizing the business which in the past came downtown.

"With the increasing congestion of traffic on our main streets and because of comparative parking ease in outlying districts, the retail merchant has begun to follow the consumer's dollar home, and superior shopping districts have grown up away from downtown," says Frank H. Partridge, secretary of the association in his report to the directors. "Other factors of geography and competition have entered the picture."

"Amplification of the situation, is to be found in constant, energetic effort to solve the traffic problem, to determine the feasibility of a rapid transit system and the feasibility of real business courtesy in the downtown shops and on our downtown streets."

TEACHING OF JAZZ URGED
Rupert Hughes Advoises Music Instructors to Study and Analyze Modern Melodies

Rupert Hughes stirred the interest of the music teachers now holding their State convention at the Alexandria with the admonition to "study, analyze and teach jazz" yesterday afternoon.

In the author's opinion American music is being ignored by American musicians and jazz should have the attention of the music teachers.

"American literature was neglected for 100 years in this country and everything English was read regardless of its value. Foreign appreciation of Poe and others brought them to the attention of their countrymen and it is foreign interest in American jazz which will give it its place in the United States," he pointed out.

Remember Bach was also a revolutionary in his day and if you would aid America's music it is your duty to study and welcome it in all its manifestations."

A musical program followed Mr. Hughes' talk and later a round-table discussion on singing was conducted by Louise Gude. A banquet was given in the evening at which Charles C. Brasa, former president of the Music Teachers' Association, acted as toastmaster. Roderick White of Santa Barbara will conduct a discussion on the violin at a meeting this morning after which the convention will meet at the Elsie Temple for an organ recital and luncheon.

Embezzlement Trial Date Set
After pleading not guilty to charges of embezzling funds from the Southern California Gas Company, when arraigned before Superior Judge Edmonds yesterday, Edward E. Sweeney was ordered to appear in Superior Judge Burrell's court on the 26th inst. for trial.

Although Sweeney is accused of embezzling approximately $300,000 from the company while he was employed as land and tax agent, he is charged in the complaint with several specific peculations covering but a portion of this amount.

PROTESTS TO BE HEARD
Protests will be heard by the City Council this morning against the proposed installation of ornamental lighting posts on streets in the Devonshire and Fryton-avenue improvement district in the San Fernando Valley.

Man Hired by Colonel to Abduct Wife Tells Story on Witness Stand
Details of the asserted kidnapping plot by means of which Harry Light, former army colonel, hoped to win back the love of his estranged wife, were told yesterday before Municipal Judge Gray by Bud Coy, who declared that he was hired by Light to do the kidnapping. The case, which was not finished yesterday, will be continued today.

Coy testified that he was approached on the street by Light, who asked him if he "wanted to do a first-class kidnapping job for $500." He told Light that he did, and brought Detective-Lieutenant Burris as an assistant, he said.

Light told them, he testified, to kidnap his wife, Mrs. Leah Light, from a Santa Monica Boulevard address to which he took them, and to take her to a lonely cabin near the Newhall tunnel, from which Light would "rescue" her, after she had been beaten up by the "kidnappers."

Young Leaves for Yosemite
Gov. Young left late last night for his summer headquarters at the Yosemite Valley where he plans to spend approximately one month. He arrived here yesterday and spent part of the afternoon in his office following his address at the world's Sunday-school convention and in the evening dined with the State Agricultural Board in session at Long Beach.

A staff is maintained at his Yosemite lodge. Gov. Young said, and he was busy late yesterday arranging more than fifty letters which are to be answered on his arrival in the northern camp today.

Dyott Expedition Picks Up Old Trail of Explorer Missing in Brazil

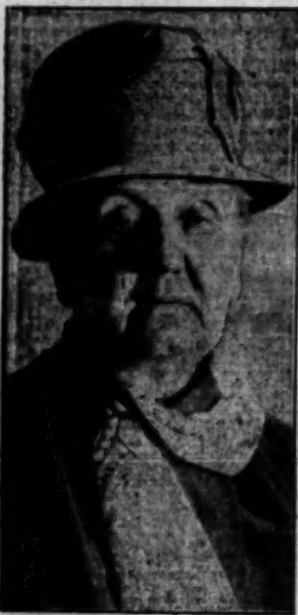

Definitely on the Trail of the Missing Explorer, Col. Fawcett, the expedition headed by Commander George M. Dyott has plunged into little known interior of Brazil, according to exclusive radio messages received from the party. Here four members of party are shown in barge as it is towed down Kulisev River to "jumping off place." (N. A. N. A. photo.)

Arrival of Dyott Expedition at Baikari Post, "Jumping Off Place"—Discarded stores and marks on trees at Dead Horse Camp gave the searchers their first definite trace of Col. Fawcett and his two companions who disappeared into the jungle in May, 1925, and have not been heard of or from since. Five Baikari Indians are with party. (N. A. N. A. photo.)

Fishing in Yosemite is Better Than Usual, according to word from rangers and local anglers returning from the national park. This photo showing Arthur T. Gallison with a catch of trout, the largest of which weighed 2 1/2 pounds and measured 20 inches, supports statement.

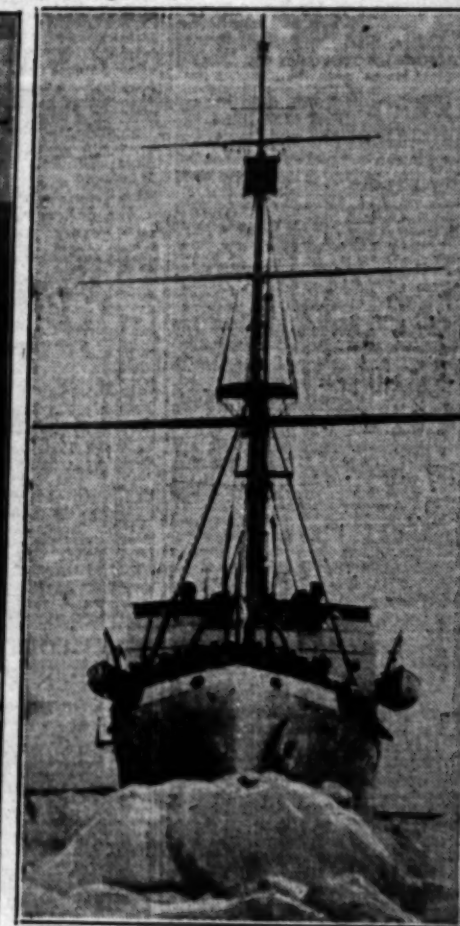

It is Common Knowledge That a Bear Will Eat Practically Anything that can possibly be digested by his super-digestive system, but it was not known until recently that Bruin likes his smoke, too. Photo shows Bosco, an old-timer at Jasper National Park, Canada, accepting a lighted cigar. Park employees maintain he smokes with every sign of enjoyment. (Herbert photo.)

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 1078

THE FIGHTING SOUTH OF THE PASIG RIVER ON FEBRUARY 5, 1899, WAS OF A PARTICULARLY DESPERATE NATURE. CONFRONTING THE RIGHT OF THE AMERICAN LINE, WHICH WAS HELD BY THE 14TH INFANTRY AND NORTH DAKOTA VOLUNTEERS, THE FILIPINOS UNDER GEN. NOVEL OCCUPIED THE STRONG SPANISH FORTIFICATIONS. AT 7:30 A. M. THE AMERICANS OPENED FIRE ALL ALONG THE LINE. WHILE FROM THE BAY THE MONITOR "MONADNOCK" POUNDED THE INSURGENT WORKS WITH HER BIG GUNS.

IN THE MORNING A BATTALION OF THE 14TH ADVANCED TO STORM BLOCKHOUSE FOURTEEN. BUT THE RESISTANCE OF THE FILIPINOS WAS SO STUBBORN AT THIS POINT THAT THE AMERICANS DID NOT CARRY THEIR OBJECTIVE UNTIL TWO O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON.

FINALLY, A SMALL PARTY OF VOLUNTEERS LED BY LIEUTENANT MILES DISLODGED THE ENEMY FROM THE BLOCKHOUSE. AND A FLANKING MOVEMENT OF OVERSHINE'S BRIGADE DROVE THE INSURGENTS FROM THEIR TRENCHES.

THE FILIPINOS RETRAINED, ARMED AND EQUIPPED, PUSHED ON AND ENTERED MANILA, WITHOUT ENCOUNTERING RESISTANCE.

Yesterday Sessions of the American Institute of Co-operation, in session yesterday, formed for the first time into four groups and visited the Los Angeles Terminal Market, the Fruit Growers' Exchange, Adair dairy farm in the San Fernando Valley and to the Holly Hatcher in Hollywood.
Bruce McDaniel, general counsel of the Mutual Orange Distributors, delivered the address of the afternoon which was presided over by E. G. House, chief of the agricultural division of the Institute of Co-operation, Washington.
It is a fallacy to sacrifice efficiency for the sake of a commodity, said Mr. McDaniel.
The Institute of Co-operation is not a monopoly, he said. It is a co-operative organization. The factor in his business is to render service to the community which is the only way to secure satisfaction. Co-operation cannot and even if they should not monopolize supply, it is not to arbitrarily fix prices.
It was brought out that farmers in the United States are making co-operative associations and 1,000,000 of them are represented at the present time. They represent an aggregate of $1,500,000,000. Co-operation will continue today.
COMPLAINT FILED
